Way

California bred Louisiana raised but forever will be a city girl at heart!

My name is Way Bui, I'm a 27yr old Asian from a small town in Louisiana. California bred Louisiana raised but forever will be a city girl at heart! I started modeling as a hobby 10 years ago on and off and still enjoy being in front of the camera :) currently doing freelance modeling and living out of a suit case traveling from city to city doing promotional work and working with many different amazing photographers and companies.

My Goal is to get my face and name out there and work with many different photographers and companies as possible. My favorite of all time quotes that keeps me going while I'm on the road and away from family and friends is "humble enough to know I'm not better than anyone but wise enough to know that I'm different from the rest!" ■

Yadi

As for my plans... I'm not scared of hard work, and I know it needs lots of it to be successful. I'm looking forward to whatever this industry has for me in the future. My wish is that it will be a long and joyful journey.

A DREAM COME TRUE

I can't express how happy I am to say that my dreams came true, and now I'm a 19 year-old published model.

My motto is "normal is boring". I'm not afraid to be diverse. Maybe that's another reason I love modeling so much.

Puerto Rican Jersey Girl, I always wanted to be a performer since I was a little girl. I spent my entire childhood dreaming I was on stage singing, acting, dancing and modeling. I have a passion for performing arts! It's not just that I enjoy being under the spotlight, but I also do have the skills for it!

Trained Gymnast, Cheerleader

I am a trained gymnast, cheerleader and dancer. I was cheerleading many years. I even managed to be the youngest in the senior team, mainly because I was the most flexible, and within a very short time, I became a coach. I'm currently pursuing a degree in Media Arts & Communications.

I can't express how happy I am to say that my dreams came true, and now I'm a 19 year-old published model. I love modeling! I enjoy dressing up and entertain people. That's what modeling is all about, right?

My creativity doesn't end in performing arts though. I'm really keen on freehand drawing. I have a pretty big collection of artwork. Who knows? Maybe I'll show you my paintings someday.

Another passion of mine is food. Who said that models have to starve to death? I love eating! A LOT! My favorites are ceviche, pizza, and ice cream – especially in winter (it tastes much better, trust me!).

My motto is "normal is boring". I'm not afraid to be diverse. Maybe that's another reason I love modeling so much. It's just like acting; you are never the same. I want my life to be full of new experiences. I want to live each and every moment! I am adventurous, I like making new friends and I enjoy traveling and meeting different cultures.

While I cheer diversity and taking risks, when it comes to love, I'm a hopeless romantic at heart. I'm waiting for my Prince Charming to come on his white horse and let our own fairy tale begin.

As for my plans... I'm not scared of hard work, and I know it needs lots of it to be successful. I'm looking forward to whatever this industry has for me in the future. My wish is that it will be a long and joyful journey.

A beautiful 23 years old model. Born and grew up in Bangladesh. An ambitious model who wants to become Miss World. An animal lover, as much as a social bee, she enjoys always making new friends. Her talent extends also at designing her own clothes. Loves to cook and eat healthy.

A photographer happened to come into my business, and asked if I'd be interested in modelling, and bam, I got started again

Born in Scotland. Grew up riding horses and sailing with my parents. Moved to London when I was 18, then to the Midlands and studied law at university. I quit working in law in 2007 and moved to Los Angeles, California with my husband.

Started modelling back in the UK. I'd already done some artist modelling for extra money during university. I started photographic modelling back in early 2005 - I got into it when I gave a friend who was a model a ride to a photo shoot, and while she was changing, the photographer took some pictures of me, and said I should consider modelling as I photographed well. I ended up with a portfolio on Mayhem and did a few shoots. When I got to California in 2007 I wasn't going to carry on, but then a photographer happened to come into my business, and asked if I'd be interested in modelling, and bam, I got started again. I've done a variety of modelling work including alt. fashion & lingerie, tattoo modelling, alt. glamour, pin-up, artistic photography, and some promo modelling.

T'sharie Andrea Taylor

The one and only T'sharie Andrea Taylor. I am a 21 year old singer/songwriter, model/dancer. I've been writing and recording my own songs since the age of 18, I've developed a high interest in the fashion/model world why? Because I LOVE it so much. It's me. When I walk into a room I have that star quality. I have the experience and so much confidence it could kill!!! My future goal is to break into the music world more than I am right now. For example: constant writing/recording, touring and performing all over the world. Showing the alter ego side of me which is clearly just me being me. Another goal would be to accomplish getting my business together. I have a dream to start up my own company that involves models/singers/dancers and anyone with the dream to shine.

At this moment things are working out pretty well. Knowing the right people working as hard as I can and staying focused because I am the future. 2014 here I come.

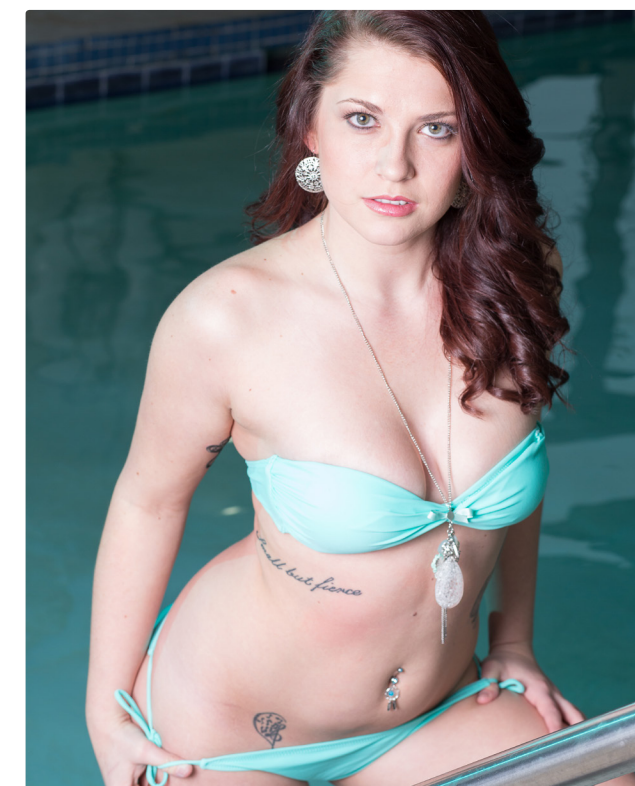

Caitlyn Crockett

I am now a blue belt in Judo and I've competed in numerous Brazilian Jui-Jitsu tournaments.

My name is Caitlyn. I'm twenty-two and from Springfield Georgia. Right now, I'm working two jobs as a waitress and I plan on attending college in the fall for therapeutic massaging. I'm very athletic. I played softball, wrestling, and tennis in high school and then I picked up mixed martial arts my junior year. I'm now a blue belt in Judo and I've competed in numerous Brazilian Jui-Jitsu tournaments. I was once number one in the south east. I took a break from it last year for a little while and I've been modeling the last six months or so, developing my portfolio. I love getting all dolled up for a photoshoot and then being wowed at the shots my photographer catches. Modeling has become such a big part of my life and has taught me so much, especially about myself. Ultimately I'm hoping to further my career in not only fighting, but modeling as well. I also model for a car club called RPM (Raceline Performance Motorsports) and go with them to car shows. In my spare time, I love nothing more than tearing up those long dirt roads on a Friday night after work. Or even a chill night by the fire with a few good friends.

Lucinda Marie

Hi am Lucinda Marie and this is my special month article because it's my birthday this march. A little bit about myself

I have an amazing man that has helped and guided me all the way through my work i just don't know what I would do without him in my life has always been there for me and I'm just so happy i also have a wonderful family and a cat named Lilly that just brings joy to everyone i also thank god for what he has given me in life i wouldn't be the model who i am today if it wasn't for him. I have been modeling for 4 years and i am wanting to succeed much more in the modeling industry.

My Goals are to further my career in the modeling industry. I want to succeed as a singer in the near future. Would like to be published in fashion, swimwear and bridal magazines. I would even one day like to design my own website where i can sell my own merchandise.

Beauty secrets, I go to the gym daily to tone up and keep fit. Making sure that I am keeping up with my fruit and vegetables which can really show a lot of difference. I make sure that i get at least 8hours sleep. Relaxing and yoga is a great way to relieve stress. Drinking a decent amount of water. Most important don't get involved in stressful surroundings. Stay positive.

Alana Tyler

From Savannah, Ga I am a 21-years-old student at South University and my major is Psychology. I ultimately want to become a Physician's Assistant, then maybe a surgeon. I love helping people. I always see the good in people even if no one else does. I like to not be so serious all the time; you get wrinkles when you're serious and worrying all the time. I have a wonderful boyfriend who keeps me smiling day and night. There's times when I would like to drop kick him in the throat, but he's too cute to hurt, and he loves me to death and that's something some people never get to experience. I also have an amazing family. If it wasn't for my family and boyfriend supporting me it would be pretty hard to get through life. I began modeling when my friend caitlyn got me to a group shoot. It was a lot of fun but of course my pictures weren't great since I had never done a photoshoot before, After a couple one on ones with Charlotte Wilson I fell inlove with modeling. It bring out the confidence you never knew you had. I surprise myself all the time with the way my pictures turn out. I never thought in a million years that I could pull off a photoshoot. I have a good teacher though. I like to have fun with photo shoots, making silly faces for test shots, goofing off in between changing out fits. If a photoshoot is too serious it shows in your pictures, or atleast that's what I think. Modeling is a lot of fun though. You get to meet great people and transform into a person people want to be. Modeling makes you feel beautiful.

Kelly Godfrey

GORGIA PEACH Hi! I'm Kelly Godfrey! I'm 24 years old and I'm a southern peach from Georgia! I love doing bikini, lingerie, and fitness modeling! I have been modeling for about 5 years now! I am currently getting my masters degree and I graduated with my bachelors from Georgia Southern University. I am a very driven person, and always strive to be the best at what I do and make the best of my experiences. I love to have fun during shoots, but I am very professional. I'm pretty flexible, take direction well, and I'm easy to work with. I love running, going to the beach, and being with my family and friends. I'm a huge sports fan and can't get enough of baseball, college football, and Premier League soccer!

Raised in Bürstadt, which is a small town in Germany, I was fortunate enough to be able to travel to 13 countries and I've been told that I'm pretty. Whitty, I know, but... who am I to judge myself! I'm also very driven; there's nothing that can stand between me and what I want.

I'm flirty, quirky,

BROOKE

I was an odd one out my whole life but, suddenly, over the course of a year blossomed into a passionate, self-driven woman. I went from broken glasses and ponytails every day to a 'fashionista' with a strong passion for modeling. Raised in Bürstadt, which is a small town in Germany, I was fortunate enough to be able to travel to 13 countries throughout my time there. Besides being a fitness fanatic, I'm a tomboy at heart. Soccer is my "thang" but I've also ran track, was on the men's wrestling team (in case you're wondering yes I was good at it!), and I have an expert badge in rifle shooting and archery as well. The moral of the story? Don't try to steal my food during an apocalypse. I could kill you! I'm a sucker for athletic hunks with blonde hair and blue eyes. I honestly can't think of a better way to spend my time, than going into "beast mode" in the gym with my sexy man, or maybe even having a little one-on-one soccer match that might lead to a one-on-one bedroom match. I'm flirty, quirky, and I've been told that I'm pretty. Whitty, I know, but... who am I to judge myself! I'm also very driven; there's nothing that can stand between me and what I want. I love reading crime novels, and you could say I live on investigation discovery channel. I have a passion for understanding people and their behaviors, especially the 'bad' ones, so I'm going to school for criminology. Secrets? Sure, I have lots of them! But they are called secrets for a reason, right? I never kiss and tell! Muah!" - Brooke

I have been in the modeling industry for the last two years and have loved every moment of it. One of my biggest accomplishment so far has been being featured in Southern Vixens magazine not once, but twice. I have also been featured on several different websites and have had the opportunity to work with some amazing photographers along the way. She has been featured in a number of TV shows, commercials, movies, calendars & magazines while meeting & befriending some very well-known Hollywood movies stars. industry going on 4 years now & loving every moment of it! Currently residing in New Mexico, she anticipates the day when she can move to a tropical climate. "I'm more of a Summer Girl. I love feeling the sun & heat on my skin, I'm like a lizard.... I like lying on hot rocks under the sun, hee hee". One of her little secrets, being a natural born Latina, she lives as a blonde because she says she has "lots more fun." Some turn-offs include belching, hairy bodies "eeww, I can't stand a man that has more hair on his body than what I have on my head", constantly using bad-words, & "trying to hard" to impress a lady. Turn-ons would have to be smelling "sexy", acting like the old fashion gentleman by opening doors for a dame, sending flowers for no reason, white pearly smile, good sense of humor, oh & ya have to be a brainiac "I love it when a man teaches me something I have no clue about, yeaowza!! Such a turn-on!". . Vanessa partakes by posing in calendars with hot-rods/ Rat-rods/motorcycles, & taking photos with fans. Living in a small town, she likes to keep busy by exercising, shopping, reading, watching movies, tasting new desserts "I get weak in the knees for chocolate. I have such a sweet tooth".
