As we get older we think forget prince charming I will do this on my own but at last, we all want to have someone special to share our lives with. My opinion is be yourself. Don't be afraid to show the world who you really are. When you do that the right people will come into you life in every aspect. In friendships, love and also in business. Nothing beats staying true to who you are and what you want for your life

Nelette Kara

My name is Nelette kara and Im a TeaseUm Bikini model based in the mid-west. I've always wanted to model. I remember going to good will with my grandma to buy prom dresses so my cousins and I could host a fashion show for the family our last night at grandmas. I feel blessed that Modeling fell into my lap one day after I was asked to do a photo shoot by a local photographer here in Okoboji named Steve Heaton when I was nineteen. Once I was in I wasn't going anywhere.

Playboy Mansion

The past couple of years have been some of my most memorable moments as a model.

Since my first shoot I have met and worked with so many amazingly talented people from all over the world, I have learned so much and gained life long friends in this industry and I will never forget the people who have helped me grow as the model I am today.

The past couple of years have been some of my most memorable moments as a model. I was able to experienced the Playboy mansion, twice. # Kim Thiery

Born in Brooklyn, lived in Staten Island then moved to Long Island and I have been here since. At some point in my life I would either like to move to the West Coast or at least live there 6 months out of the year. I love the warmer weather! I love the ocean and beach! I want to be in magazines and calendars!

I would like to first state that I find it to be so heart warming and beautiful to read and hear about people who have had the courage to move on, to survive and who have had the tenacity to learn from mistakes or poor choices they may have made because they thought with their heart or believed in the wrong people. I look up to all those who have fallen, including myself, for as many times as we have fallen we always get back up! That's what matters ~ don't allow anyone to steal that from you or stop you from pursuing your dreams!

I am 47 years old, divorced and mother of three. I do have my Masters Degree as well. I am a NYS certified Elementary teacher who right now is working in a High School with students with learning disabilities. I find it to be so rewarding and such an honor to work with these students. They truly appreciate my help and guidance and I truly feel and know I giving them the help and guidance they need. It brings me such joy to see these students smile! I often think about going back to school to be certified in Special Education as well. However, teaching jobs have become very difficult to come by especially in New York.

I came across a photographer while vacationing and it inspired me that I want to pursue this! I love the camera, posing etc. I feel the need to be an inspiration to young girls as well as women who have gone through times of having low self-esteem. We must love ourselves first. As people of all ages have gotten to know me they describe me as being real, caring, compassionate, enthusiastic, inquisitive, eager to learn new things, conscientious, responsible and reliable!

Tammy Lynette

Featured in magazines and co-starred in the Independent fantasy action film "Talos"

It's never too late! That's a motto Tammy Lynette lives by. Although she started modeling as a child, she had stepped away for many years to raise her 2 sons, which are the center of her world. A local photographer found her on MySpace, and has been modeling off and on ever since 2007. She is inspired to show women that you don't have to be in your 20's to be fabulous. At 42, Tammy Lynette is making her way in the modeling world.

She has been featured in magazine's such as Delicious Dolls and Sensual Woman, co-starred in the Independent fantasy action film "Talos" and will soon be filming the sequel, is a brand Ambassador for a new lingerie line called Kitty Couture, and is a model and model manager for Emerald Girls. She also has represented Look Swimwear, BellaBella, Van Go Designs and Kichella Katour clothing. Whatever her goals are, she puts in 110% effort to get what she wants out of life. Not only is she busy with a full-time career as a Legal Assistant for a large firm and modeling, Tammy Lynette is also earning her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a minor in law, hoping one day to move on to get her law degree. In her spare time, she enjoys live music venues, sports, travel and thrift shopping. Some of her favorite things are shellfish, the beach, the color red, dancing and hearing her sons laugh!

Stephanie Michelle

Born and raised in Kentucky but moved to New Hampshire 12 years ago, and I will say that even though I truly miss the south, I love the north. I have everything that I love right here around me. I'm a girl that absolutely loves the ocean and being only minutes away is my dream come true! My modeling career is fairly new to me. Although I competed in a few pageants growing up, the actual modeling and doing shoots only started a couple years ago when I decided to compete in the Mrs New Hampshire pageant. I won the fabulous face of Facebook for the Mrs New Hampshire pageant but didn't win the competition. The experience alone was worth it to me. I met so many great people and had such a great time that night! I love all that modeling has to offer to me, I find it a form of therapy, a stress reliever; and a form of breaking me out of my shell. I wasn't the most popular girl in junior high since I came to a new school from a catholic grade school where we were very sheltered from all bad in the world and where everyone was friends. I was bullied and chased home very often for being the weird kid; the one who wouldn't talk to others and was too shy- and yeah I admit it I wasn't the cutest kid. But I use modeling now to pull me out of those shy ways and become someone who can produce great pictures. I take on suicide prevention and anti bullying as my platforms for my pageants because, I feel one life lost is one too many! I don't want other girls to feel like I did as a kid.

Miroslava

co-authoring a book that will be published in the Fall of 2014, called "Miroslava." It is her life story that will open women's eyes to survival in a third world country where life can be without value

Miroslava, a mother, grandmother, wife, Certified Personal Trainer, NPC figure competitor, fitness/bikini model, and she holds a Masters of Science degree.

She can proudly say that she has rounded out her know-how with a Masters of Science

She was born and raised in Panama Canal. Her ancestors are Hispanic, Chinese, and Kuna Indians. She speaks Spanish, and she has a working knowledge of Japanese and English. Miroslava, grew up deep in the jungles of Panama with twelve brothers and sisters. They lived a primitive life as hunters and gatherers where they learned to survive under the direst circumstances. She spent her days hunting with bow and arrow, traps, sling shot and fishing with her father and brothers, foraging for fruit and vegetables with her sisters for the day's meal.

It is her first quarter of life that taught her how to be strong of mind, body, and spirit, and how to overcome the challenges of living in a modern-civilized world. In her world of triple canopy jungle, the same as in modern civilization, the words of the late John Wayne hold so true: "Life is tough, it's even tougher when you are stupid." What she lacked in scholarly intelligence she made up for with effective intelligence and flexibility. Though, like her husband, Miroslava is a perpetual student, today. She can proudly say that she has rounded out her know-how with a Masters of Science Degree.

Miroslava's loves in life are her husband and children - together they have six. She also loves working out at the gym and bodybuilding. She has competed in fitness shows. She has also been photographed as a model (glamour, bikini, beauty, fitness, and action). She is keenly engaged in developing a Hollywood career alongside her husband that is centered on motivating all people and supporting our military, law enforcement, and first responders.

She is also co-authoring a book that will be published in the Fall of 2014, called "Miroslava." It is her life story that will open women's eyes to survival in a third world country where life can be without value, and the horrors that she endured are now the dirty secrets of those that perpetrated them on her. Her book will be a true story of overcoming real adversity, vanquishing fear, and beating all odds against survival. Miroslava, have weathered life's storms in ways that very few women can imagine. She has slayed the Goliaths in her life, much as David did. She is as tough as any man - not by brawn but by spirit. In the Panamanian Jungle among my villagers she became known as the "Little Amazonian," and she still embodies her spirit today.

Miss Tiy

This is Miss Tiy, born in California, Long Beach City raised. She grew up in a small family with her younger sister and mother in a small apartment on Long Beach Blvd. There she grew up and developed into an individual, playing with other kids from the apartments, being a kid.

Outside of that though she was bullied, mistreated and made fun of for not being pretty enough or dressing like the other girls. This followed her into high school and became so bad that she dropped out two weeks into the 9th grade.

She moved and did not return to school until the mid 10th grade and by that time her dreams of being in the fashion world and being a cover model consumed her.

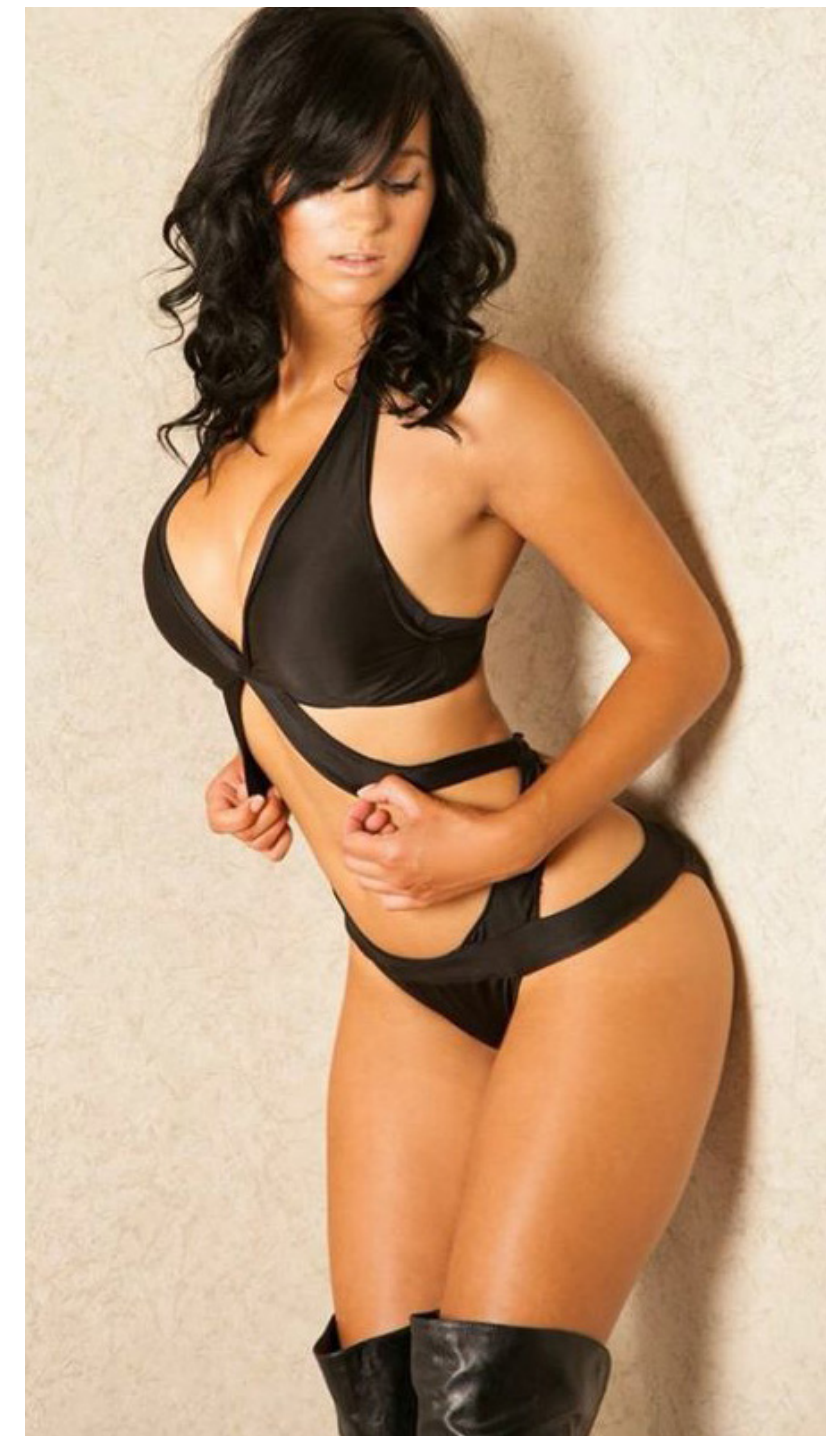

She began to study fashion, urban modeling and discover where she belonged in the world. Her goal is to have a designer line and see Paris fashion week, maybe even be in it.

Her little secret is that she has always wanted to do an all nude shoot, something artistic and fun. She would love to travel in the near future hopefully with someone special she can spend her days (and nights) with.

Today she is taking things one step at a time and focusing on the bigger picture, to be a business owner. For now she will remain single until the time is right.

My name is Jill Cisternino also known as JillyGems. I was born in Bensonhurst Brooklyn and I am Italian, Sicilian and Norweign. I started modeling a few years ago after doing a photoshoot for a private-party bartending site that I actually never followed through with.

I loved the photos that I had done so everything just started from there. I have always been an artsey creative person so modeling, doing make-up and styling my shoots it allows me to express myself. Aside from modeling I bartend in New York City and I am attending college majoring in communications. When I am not busy working I am probably working out, partying in the meatpacking district, shopping or even getting a tattoo.

I am one of the few east coast models with tatooes and piercings. I usually just wear my nose ring but I have my left nipple pierced, my tongue, libret, monroe, and my nose. Many people ask what my tattoos mean; they are a form of art, my sleeve is in progress and the theme is fairytale, I do have one tatoo that is to remind me of my parents that passed away a few years ago from illnesses. Where I live on the east coast is New York City one of the craziest places to live. I love it because you can never be bored there is always somewhere to go and something super excited to do! To me nothing makes me happier then surrounding myself with people like myself....crazy fun people like my bestfriends.

I usually just wear my nose ring but I have my left nipple pierced, my tongue, libret, monroe, and my nose. Many people ask what my tattoos mean; they are a form of art, my sleeve is in progress and the theme is fairytale,
