ANNIE ELIZABETH

BOUNDLESS SPIRIT

I'm from a small town on the coast of Maine, and I started modeling in December 2013 when I became a promotional model for PitCrew Marketing and been the featured model for F&B Apparel. Most recently I have been accepted into the modeling sorority StrawberryHunnies and I have been chosen to be a comic book character for RedSkyeComics.com along with being chosen to be a Platinum Girl for Platinum Limo Models. Which has been a highlight in my life because I love adding to my profile to further my career as a model. I do a wide range of promotional events, and love taking on new projects! I also have experience in acting; dance, and theatre. My objective is to find a position where my modeling style focuses on fashion and lifestyle, but I'm also highly skilled in doing bikini and lingerie shoots! I love being in front of the camera. I am a model with a genuine, intense passion for what I do. I have the strive and ambition to go to the top! I see modeling as a stepping stone and I've overcome many obstacles to be where I'm at today. I have the motivation to provide the best images imaginable, and I have a great sense of humor, personality and overall I love giving my fans exactly what they desire.

BRITTANY MCDONALD

I have recently been acclaimed 1st place runner for the 2014 International Bikini Model Search in Cancun. I currently work for 3 different swimwear lines including Lulu Choi Swimwear, Brazil Beach Bikinis, and Bunny Couture Crystal Swimwear. I am also a present 4 time International Hooter's Swimsuit Calendar Girl and promotional model. I've always had a passion for modeling, I feel at one with myself when I'm in front of the camera. I take pride in my body and workout at least 5-6 times a week, a little bit of a fitness guru if I don't say so myself. My goal is to shoot with Sports Illustrated, and will take the necessary steps in order to accomplish it.

JANEL

Modeling is not a popularity contest. It's not about just being a pretty girl. It's not about the designer/stylist/MUA/photographer making you "look" better than what you think you look like. Modeling is knowing at the beginning that you are a beautiful girl. The styles/photos/makeup and hair are bonuses and a portrayal of your beauty. Confidence is what makes a model great at what she does. Modeling is being confident as a person. If you feel confident as a person, you can make anything look good, which is the purpose for modeling in the beginning. Modeling is about loving yourself first because only when you love yourself do you have the ability to really love others.

I have a distinct look to me where as my face is young and lively even though I'm 25. Not to mention, that I know my face is not proportionally perfect, but that is a distinction in me that no one can look past. My integrity is so great that I don't settle for anything but the best. I am a beautiful and strong young woman and too many people in this world do not remember that they are beautiful too. I am a representation to all young females who are insecure with themselves. I can show them, we are not all perfect, but if you put your mind and the work into it, you can in fact be ANYTHING you want to be. I am the example of that!

You will not find a more fun loving and polite model. I was raised old school and had to actually work for what I wanted. I was taught to say Thank You and Please. However, that does not make me a push over; that makes me a good person. Having a positive attitude and a high self-esteem doesn't make you cocky, or better than anyone, it just makes you stand out and succeed. I will be one of the achievers. I will succeed.

SAM UTTING

I have had nothing but great feedback from my pictures and am eager to see where this can take me

I am a 26 year old Aspiring model from Adelaide.

I started out this Journey working as a make up artist with a Company called Fashion Fever Networking. I was given the opportunity to work with some great models and themes and produce some quality images. After working on the other side of the camera for so long i decided to try my hand in front of the camera as the model.

my confidence in front of the camera comes from my performance background in Latin/salsa/tango dancing competitions and from my love of pole dancing.

I have had nothing but great feedback from my pictures and am eager to see where this can take me. My dreams and aspirations are to be in a calendar a be a published swimwear and lingerie model and even one day be a brand ambassador.

I'm a single girl at preset and a little secret about me is i am a pole dancer, i love burlesque and am very very flexible.

since modeling and a lot of girls that go through the same challenges as I do when you are a model. There are ups and downs because there's a lot of jealousy with it, like people that don't understand it and cause some heat. Its so important to remind yourself to follow your heart when this happens and roll it off your back. You only live once and to me you do what makes you happy because most people would kill to be able to accomplish this! Thank you for having me in Bikini Magazine! XO

A LITTLE ABOUT ME

I actually first started off as a dancer since I was 5yrs old in ballet, hip hop, tap, modern and point. As i formed a passion for dance I became a professional ballet dancer in the Boston ballet company. After high school i stopped dancing but there was something i was missing for a while. Then I wanted to try to use my talents from holding poses in dance and expressions, So I tried modeling! Now I love expressing myself through modeling! I kept going and grow so much along the way. This is a work of art I truly enjoy. I love researching & creating new images its so inspiring to come up with new poses. Alot of times i also just create the poses with how I'm feeling on the inside. For me its my seductive, sensual passion :) I did start modeling late in life so it's been just about three years now. Its never to late to start something you think you'll love! It's defiantly a great side job as well as a hobby for me. The most important thing for is to just have fun with it. I have been published in several awesome magazines now and I think it's such a great accomplishment with only having done this a few years. To be able to juggle a professional full time job, being a mom and modeling is something i never saw myself doing, but i am! I love to keep in shape and to inspire other women along the way :) I also have over 450K fans on Facebook so it's really great to have so much support out there. Another awesome part is I have made a lot of great friendships

JENNYSWAN

Jenny Swan is a new and upcoming model from Canada. Giving in to her best friend's insisting recommendations to start modelling, she instantly fell in love with the modelling life during her first shoot in Toronto with photographer Kris Josef.

Jenny currently lives in cold Canada, but she really wishes she could live in Southern California where she spent part of her college life, in order to fulfill her high heels, short dresses and bikini obsessions. Her passion for travelling is what brought her to shoot with photographers from all over the world in the last year. And she's nowhere near done exploring the world and meeting with internationally recognized photographers to create some whimsical images.

Fitness addict at day, Jenny is a party animal at night. She loves to dress up in sexy outfits and light up the night with her bubbly personality and dancing skills. But Jenny isn't only a stunning figure, she is an intellectual as well. Mastering both French and English, she proudly graduated with a nearly perfect GPA from her Master's Degree in 2012. Who said blondes couldn't be smart?

Clearly Jenny has a lot of surprises in store for you. Not only does she love learning new things and showing off the hard earned results of her dedication at the gym, she is also a cooking and baking expert and loves to share her crazy and fun-filled life with new friends. You are not done hearing from her and she will never cease to surprise you. Stay tuned...

KIM THIERY

Hi, well this is my third article and I am very honored to be part of this great magazine! Many thanks for Robert, and believing in me! I may not be getting modeling offers or people breaking down my door but to just be a part of this magazine is truly an honor and I am proud of it! I am very much interested in pursuing modeling. Many feel you shouldn't model after a certain age or if you're a mother. It is clear that I disagree totally. If it is a dream of yours, which it has been of mine you shouldn't let anyone put negative thoughts into your head. I have realized when people talk about you it usually means their own life is boring. I have had to learn the hard way not to worry about what everyone says about me because there are always going to be negative people who try to crush your dreams but it is up to you NOT to allow them.

A little more about myself~ I love to help with fund-raisers such as those that pertain to child abuse, domestic violence, date rape, certain illnesses such as Cancers (brain & breast) as well as Cystic Fibrosis. Other illnesses that I have devoted time to donating and learning about are IBS, Crohn's and Colitis. I also have helped young teens privately work through some personal issues do to having low self-esteem. I am very easy to talk to and open up to. I love to help people! My heart breaks especially when I see or hear young teens whether male or female with low self-esteem. Some of these teens have low self-esteem because they are bullied. Another goal of mine is to try and put a stop to bullying, violence in relationships etc. Just because people can bully others doesn't mean it is right. I have witnessed adults as well being bullied and it's wrong. I want to make a difference in this world. There needs to be more, peace and love and everyone supporting each other. So let me end this article by saying- live, love & laugh and let's enjoy the beach- XO

TOBIAN THOMPSON

BORN IN JAMAICA AND CURRENTLY LIVE IN SUNNY TAMPA FLORIDA! I STARTED MODELING A YEAR AGO AND HAVE BEEN ON THE BEST ADVENTURE OF MY LIFE! I AM IN LOVE WITH THE FASHION INDUSTRY AND I LOVE BEING AROUND CAMERAS. WHETHER THAT'S IN FRONT OR BEHIND; I TRY MY HANDS AT PHOTOGRAPHY AT TIMES =). I MUST ADMIT THOUGH I ENJOY BEING IN FRONT MUCH MORE. NOT IN A CONCEITED WAY. I ENJOY PUTTING MYSELF IN OTHERS' VISIONS AND MAKING IT A PART OF MY OWN. IT'S LIKE SEEING YOURSELF THROUGH SOMEONE ELSE'S EYES.

MY ASPIRATION IS TO BE IN SPORTS ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE. I ABSOLUTELY LOVE THE BEACH! I GIVE CREDIT TO MY ROOTS. IT'S WHERE I FEEL THE MOST NATURAL AND AT ONE WITH MY SURROUNDINGS. MODELING IS THE LINK BETWEEN MY FANTASY AND REALITY. IT STARTED WITH A FONDNESS FOR FASHION ON WHICH I INTEND TO BUILD ONTO ONE PASSION AT A TIME.

AS A MODEL I ENJOY PUTTING MYSELF INTO SOMEONE ELSE'S VISION AND MAKING IT A PART OF MY OWN. WHEN I WAS A CHILD I WOULD LOOK AT WORK OF MODELS I ADMIRERED AND IT SEEMED...UNATTAINABLE. I THOUGHT ALL MODELS WERE BORN THE GLOSSY, MYSTERIOUS, OMNISCIANT IDOLS I WOULD SEE IN THE MAGAZINE AND RUNWAYS. WHEN I LEARNED THE HARD WORK AND DEDICATION THAT WAS REQUIRED I FELL IN LOVE; NOT JUST WITH MODELING; THE FASHION INDUSTRY!

AS MODEL MY ASPIRATION IS TO BE IN SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. I LOVE THE BEACH (I GIVE THE CREDITS TO MY ROOTS). IT COMES SO NATURALLY TO ME! I INTEND TO TAKE WHAT I'VE LEARNED AND PASS IT ON TO THE NEXT SET OF NEW FACES. I WANT TO BE THE EXAMPLE THAT

STEREOTYPES CAN (AND SHOULD) BE BROKEN. YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE 6 FT TO BE TALL. YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A SIZE 0 TO BE BEAUTIFUL! HARD WORK AND DEDICATION IS KEY!

KASSIDY HILL

I grew up around cars, and use to work on cars in a shop for a living so I know a thing or two maybe three :). Currently I am attending school for my degree in Criminal Justice Technology. I have always held myself to higher standards than most due to my upbringing. Always was taught in order to get, you work for it. To this day I live my life that way. One of few that believe things need to be earned rather than just handed over. I got into modeling when I was 18 years old and fell in love with it. All my life I had been told to go for anything your heart desires and I then fell in love with the camera. I hope to one day make a career of it and have fun doing it at the same time. Life is too short to not do something you love, we only get one shot at it so why not enjoy it
