ACANTHA ANDRESS

A cantha Andress is an up and coming model from the Nashville, TN. area. She is a mother as well as a student. And recently started modeling about 2 years ago. She has always dreamt about it, but never acted upon it, thinking it was too out of reach. Only after she started working with an internationally published well established photographer did she realize she had a chance, and the *secret* is just to start DOING it.

The past couple of months she has been published in Bikini Magazine's November 2014 issue, as well as their 2015 calendar. It's a Bikini's Girl Life USA, and will be featured in December 15th's issue of Red Hot Kittens. She also has work in progress to be put in a Paris art gallery. She doesn't plan on stopping there and can't wait to see what the future has to hold.

IZABELLA MARCELLA

I started out modeling in 2007. I didn't take it really serious till three years ago, and I am loving every bit of it. I am 34 years old. This has been my passion since

I was a little girl. And I don't take no for an answer. Because I have goals and believeing is what gets you through. I've been asked why do I still model at my age, and I say: Why not? Because there is a lot of work out there and great work gives you recognition. Plus I love to do events, which helps by modeling. So its not just about taking photos. Its about showing who you are. And I love to do so!

EIR KELLY

So I am originally from anchorage, AK and moved down to beautiful Florida when I was 18. I love snowboarding and mountain climbing but always secretly wanted to be that pretty girl in the magazine. I love traveling and meeting new people. I am pretty shy but the moment I meet you, you will automatically be my friend. I love being goofy and making people smile!

KELSEY LONG

I am Kelsey Long, a small town girl from Hagerstown Maryland. Addicted to shopping and shoes. I've been published 3 times before and I am trying to continue going. Modeling is a passion I have always had, when I was younger I always wanted to, but never thought I had what it took to model. Thank you to everyone who has helped me and made my dreams come true !

MY SECRET TALENTS INCLUDE YOGA AND POLE FITNESS.
YES, I CAN SHAKE AND STRETCH IT WITH THE BEST OF THEM!

Me in a nutshell.....free-spirit, artist, a writer, optimistic, dreamer, believer, Aquarius, a true friend, loving, caring, professional, classy, fun, tough-ass model. When it comes to modelling, its a dream that has thrived in me since I was a little girl. Capturing pictures with sassy poses and toothless smiles. I am anxious to continue meeting many talented photographers, assisting them in bringing images from imagination to reality, and becoming a part of the art that inspired my insatiable desire to create.

My goal as a model is to continue to be published and have fun with it. My queen role models would have to be Pam Anderson and Marilyn Monroe.

Kacey Anne

We have an amazing success story for you; and we believe will make people's emotions stir especially during this Holiday season. Coming from a middle class blue collar family, Chaunty Spillane is working her way onto the honor roll from middle-high school, The National Honor Society and now just worked hard enough to become eligible to join SAG-AFTRA (Screen Actor's Guild). She just joined SAG-AFTRA and received reputable agency representation from NY-MMG in NYC, USA. Chaunty is a SAG-AFTRA Actor & Three-Time Internationally Published Cover Girl as well as "The Jill of All Trades".

Chaunty also was one of the photo doubles for Debra Messing in her new hit TV Show on NBC "The Mysteries of Laura" which the clip was used in the episode "The Mysteries of the Red Runway". "My hair was a lighter more brown/strawberry/auburn color then (not Debra's deep red, but it still looks believable." Chaunty says. "Now my hair is her red color and I hope to be her stand-in or photo double again," Chaunty reminisces. She was featured in two other episodes as well for a total of a week plus of filming in NYC on The Mysteries Of Laura. Also, Chaunty met and was interviewed after Arthur Wahlberg on The LotusCast Pod Cast at the Gilgamesh World Premiere a couple weeks ago. If you google Chaunty now, she is everywhere yet still humble. "It all amazes me and I am so forever thankful to everyone whom has helped me. For instance Harris Davey Jr. who took these Bikini photos. He is a fashion, commercial photographer and can pull off any look or concept. We have made amazing art together."

Chaunty also posts on over 5 social networks daily to maintain a connection with over 115,000+ followers/fans/friends/supporters. "They praise me every day. I've been called "The Beacon of Light" before many-a-time by fans. I'm speechless and forever thankful." Chaunty says. Chaunty incorporates positivity into everything and lives by it. She has an extensive resume on imDB.com (Internet Movie Data Base).

Chaunty has been in 8 TV commercials (one national last year for Adam & Eve Co for the holidays....as the blonde and one commercial in Spanish). Chaunty works hard for her severely disabled sister Nicole, whom is Chaunty's favorite person and Angel, and obviously for her amazing mother. "Nicole is my everything and she is happy and giggles everyday. She can't speak, walk by herself, feed herself, bath herself and is basically like a large infant motor skills-wise. She was born with the gene, we didn't know it, and signs didn't show until she was 3-4 years old. Then she lost every word she learned, every motor skill her voice, developed scoliosis, had to get a permanent feeding tube (g-tube) surgically put in place to feed her at night to maintain proper nutrition and regulate her scary low weight, to ensure she's never starves. My mom is my idol because she's a single mother of two and has raised me to succeed, work hard, care for others, stand up for myself and be a strong empowered woman. She is the hardest working person I know besides myself," Chaunty states.

Chaunty in addition has a lipstick named after her at <http://LTWCustom-Cosmetics.com/> called "Chaunty". She has done a few NY runway shows and have been in a lot of Hollywood films, interviews, have interviewed a handful of local and national celebrities/socialites in the industry on "The Chaunty Show on YouTube". Highly published, her imDB starmeter ranges from 3,000-40,000 each week. Chaunty's family is so proud of her and Chaunty knows deep down somewhere my sister is too. "We all take such good care of her and when I gain more notoriety, I want to open a multi-purpose foundation to serve those in need who are survivors of Rett Syndrome (what my sister has), MS and double brain stem strokes and for victims (both men and women) of domestic violence." Chaunty is an Aquarius and a Valentine's Day Baby (Feb. 14th) and she is on her path to trail blazing in the industry for the women of today.

Harris Davey Jr, Photographer. A western MA native (Floridian at heart) photographer helps create artistic and commercial photography with Chaunty.

CANDEE RED

Candice Elizabeth is a 26 year old glamour/swimwear model originally from Brisbane, Queensland but currently residing in Perth, Western Australia.

Candice only began pursuing modelling through online competitions and social media networking opportunities in 2013. Prior to this, Candice did some modelling for fun when she was studying to be a teacher so that she could get themed shots to apply for acting parts in student films. She loved being in front of the camera but it wasn't until her teaching job ended that she realised teaching was the only thing stopping her from really giving modelling a go, so she went for it!

Since deciding to pursue modelling, Candice has been published multiple times in different men's magazines, competed in numerous online modelling competitions, as well as being sought for online features and music videos. Her online portfolio/presence has increased in leaps and bounds in the short time since she has begun pursuing modelling and she has quite a few exciting projects lined up for the remainder of 2014. Her most recent achievement is being crowned Playboy's Miss Social August 2014, which will see her jet-setting to the United States for a photoshoot with a Playboy photographer and a tour of the mansion. She is over the moon to be a part of the Playboy family and proud to be the first Australian and redhead winner.

When it comes to styles, Candice loves lingerie shoots above all else, but is also really fond of the pin-up style and bikini modelling. She loves these styles of shoots as she believes that they best flatter her body type and look. Her natural body is slim yet curvy, and this combined with her fair skin and natural red hair gives her a unique yet classic look that is extremely versatile and striking.

Her ultimate goal is to represent a different kind of beauty and break down the stereotypes that exist when it comes to the modelling scene. She hopes to show that beauty comes in many different forms and also hopes to be a role model for young women, encouraging them to reject the unhealthy ideals of beauty that are sometimes presented to them through the mainstream media. She also hopes to use modelling as a platform to further her acting experiences.

My name is Jill Cisternino also known as JillyGems. I was born in Bensonhurst Brooklyn and I am Italian, Sicilian and Norweign. I started modeling a few years ago after doing a photoshoot for a private-party bartending site that I actually never followed through with.

I loved the photos that I had done so everything just started from there. I have always been an artsey creative person so modeling, doing make-up and styling my shoots it allows me to express myself. Aside from modeling I bartend in New York City and I am attending college majoring in communications. When I am not busy working I am probably working out, partying in the meatpacking district, shopping or even getting a tattoo.

I am one of the few east coast models with tattoos and piercings. I usually just wear my nose ring but I have my left nipple pierced, my tongue, libret, monroe, and my nose. Many people ask what my tattoos mean; they are a form of art, my sleeve is in progress and the theme is fairytale, I do have one tattoo that is to remind me of my parents that passed away a few years ago from illnesses. Where I live on the east coast is New York City one of the craziest places to live. I love it because you can never be bored there is always somewhere to go and something super excited to do! To me nothing makes me happier then surrounding myself with people like myself....crazy fun people like my bestfriends.

Robynne Leah

I've worked for a number of years very hard as a Model and Actor and I feel this is an amazing opportunity to share my story and inspire women around the world.

Like most people I've struggled working day to day in factories, restaurants, door to door sales, insurance, personal training...You name it, Robynne has pretty much done it! There were times when I was studying acting that I would sleep in my car so I could go to class in the winter time. At one time I was involved in an awful situation that forced me to become homeless with my two year child. To date, I am still a single parent who has worked on over 10 films, and have been featured in music videos, commercial and awesome magazines like Bikini-Magazine with Francis Gamboa! To me I have had success in my own right, but I still have big goals!

I share this with you because I feel I have a drive inside and think that no matter what life throws at us we can always rise above and always follow our heart. WE CAN PERSEVERE!

I would like to start this off by stating I thank Robert for believing in me and pushing me to keep going after my dream. I was so honored to be in many editions of the Bikini Magazine! I am 48 years old, divorced and mother of three. I have a Masters Degree. I am a NYS Certified teacher for early childhood through 6th grade. I currently work in a High School with students with special needs. I am also a certified nanny.

During the past year I went to the Dominican Republic and I just stumbled across a photographer doing photo shoots. It was always a dream of mine from my younger days to be a model but never pursued it.

It came so naturally to me. It built up my self-confidence and made me realize a lot about my dreams and myself. I will continue to state this because I strongly believe it: I feel all women of all sizes are beautiful and should be confident in their own skin. I also believe that many women, not all, feel once you become a mother you can't be sexy. Very false statement!

So during my year in review I was fortunate enough to meet online with Robert who I will state again has helped me to pursue being published in the Bikini Magazine monthly. After being so proud to see the magazine I still continued to hear some negative comments from people such as you're an embarrassment to your kids, you shouldn't dress like you're in your twenties or thirties, well why not is my response. I know when to dress professionally, sexy, and sporty. Well guess what? My kids are my biggest fans! I finally realized those people are always going to be around and I guess I have learned to tune it out.

My main goal is to send a message to women whether you're a mother or divorced you have the right to still feel sexy and show it off! No one should stop you from feeling great or pursuing your dreams. There is no expiration date on fulfilling your dreams and one of mine has been to be in a swimsuit magazine as well as posing for many other things. I love the beach as well as posing. I am asking for people to sponsor me in contests I enter, like my photos and help me to pursue my dreams! I am planning to be posing in more photo shoots. I also always look to inspire anyone of all ages going through any tough times or just if that need a lift. If I can inspire one person a day that inspires me! I am currently working on writing a book as well. It Rained, It Poured But I am Still Standing!

I want to thank all of the people I have chatted with through this website~ you have helped me to grow and not quit. It is such an honor each month to be in the Bikini Magazine and I am truly blessed! I am also hoping to get to be one of the contestants picked to be in the Bikini Contest.
