Alyssa Louise Caruso

I am Alyssa Caruso, a published professional glamour model from a small town in New Jersey. I got my start in the modeling world through beauty pageants.

These are definitely not like what you see on television! No toddler in a tiara here, that's for sure! After I graduated from modeling school,

I was hit with millions of "no's". Then I just begun to get a stream of "yes's" in this industry and I couldn't be happier.

I have been on the cover of Emerald Lifestyle Magazine and I've also had a few other small publications. My dream is to be able to support myself through modeling and make a career out of it. Honestly though, I would faint if I ever landed in Sports Illustrated Swimsuit, that's my biggest dream! I have such a girl crush on Kate Upton! In my real love life, I am newly single and I'm really not sure what I want. My career comes first so I'm not looking for anything serious right now.

I have to outgrow my bad boy phase before I can consider a relationship! Unless of course someone shows me what I want, then I would jump on the opportunity because being so very impulsive is one of my character flaws! When my modeling is said and done, I would really love to attend college, preferably in a warm and tropical state like Florida. My plan for the future is to counsel inmates in prison and juvenile delinquents with a degree in psychology and criminal justice. I will always have to live my life on the edge, at least a little.

I was in the bikini model challenge and loved it and I am continuing working out to reach more fitness goals I want to be more toned and tight. I feel more confident with myself over the past few months doing the challenge and want to continue getting better. I always hear how short I am and it used to bother me, but now I'm getting better. It is frustrating being short but I'm human too and now, I always want to think positive.

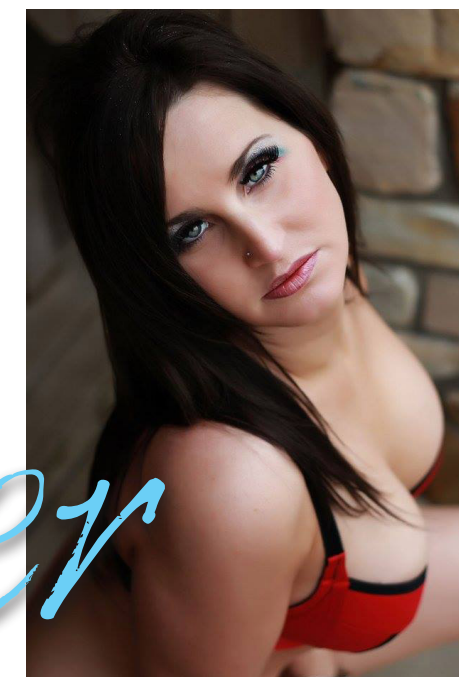

I'm a small town girl who runs a pizza restaurant with my parents, i have a 12 year old son with cerebral palsy in his legs and some hearing loss, he was born premature and is doing better. I am working out now since January.

EMMA SKYY

Elizabeth Hallett is a freelance model by the name of Emma Skyy. She has been in the industry for seven years since the age of eighteen. She plays a perfect role for fitness modeling, print, commercial, internet, lingerie and body paint but has managed to break the barriers having accomplished four runway fashion shows; "Hush By Design," "Durham's Top Model," "Apple-bottom" and "Toronto Bike Show" at a mere height of only 5'3. Elizabeth has also been an extra on the T.V series "Body Language" in 2010 and would love to expand her acting experience.

Elizabeth is a witty, Miss. Congeniality with a passion for living life to it's fullest. Always seeking to try new things, the life of a Gemini is never a bore. She loves to travel on her free time, gaining knowledge and spirituality. Elizabeth has duality because she knows how to get down and dirty like a tom-boy and then get all dulled up to strut her stuff on the town.

Elizabeth currently resides in Oshawa, ON but plans to move to Toronto when she finds the perfect location. She will also be attending college in the future for RMT and upon completion will open her own Massage Therapy business. Elizabeth has always been an entrepreneur from a young age and is a woman who follows her own path in life. Her favourite quote is "The world is a book and those who do not travel, read only a page."

Dutchie

Born and raised in Canada, with Dutch roots, Dutchie currently lives in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. With only a year of modeling experience, she has been internationally published in several editorial publications and traveled around the world shooting with some of the most renowned photographers.

Jeffrey Huang

Dutchie's piercing blue eyes have been the topic of conversation on many photo shoots and they have a unique story behind them. While many models begin their careers early on in life, whether it is in their teens or early twenties, Dutchie didn't begin modeling until the year she was turning 30. With having established herself professionally as a business owner, her late start in the modeling industry turned out to be perfect timing; she took a more business-minded approach to her modeling. With so many models working for free to build their portfolio, Dutchie didn't want to fall into that cycle. This mindset has put her in high-demand, establishing her career on a sustainable foundation, as modeling can many times have a shorter shelf-life. Her goals are to continue doing print modeling and expanding her spokesperson persona.

Her message to her fans is that your age should not be a hindrance to pursuing your dreams. We all improve with time and she encourages anyone who thinks they are too old to do something new, to instead dive right in to achieving your goals and surrounding yourself with encouraging people.

Masha

I am Masha. I am 24, from Donetsk, Ukraine. I grew up very poor with an alcoholic mother who would sometimes leave my sister and I alone for weeks. She passed when I turned 10 and we were sent to an orphanage. A year later, we were sent to different boarding schools. We were very lucky to later be adopted by a wonderful American family who loves us as their own. I currently live in Virginia Beach, VA. I have been modeling a little over six months and I enjoy it very much. It is a hobby which I would like to maybe turn into a career. I absolutely love the entertainment industry! I have also done a little bit of acting and I would very much like to do more.

Kim Thiery

My main goal is to send a message to women whether you're a mother or divorced you have the right to still feel sexy and show it off! No one should stop you from feeling great or pursuing your dreams. There is no expiration date on fulfilling your dreams and one of mine has been to be in a swimsuit magazine as well as posing for many other things. I love the beach as well as posing. I am asking for people to sponsor me in contests I enter, like my photos and help me to pursue my dreams! I am planning to be posing in more photo shoots. I also always look to inspire anyone of all ages going through any tough times or just if that need a lift. If I can inspire one person a day that inspires me! I am currently working on writing a book as well "It Rained, It Poured But I am Still Standing"!

As people of all ages have gotten to know me they describe me as being real, caring, compassionate, enthusiastic, inquisitive, eager to learn new things, conscientious, responsible and reliable!

Terina

She will show, that age is only a number. If you have a 'dream' never stop reaching. The soft smile, the innocent eyes, it all contains years of mystery and experience. What you don't see on the outside, she holds the secrets on the inside. She raised 2 children and now it's time for herself.

She'll dress up when she needs to, but her favorite things to wear are shorts, t-shirt and flip flops and eating chili dogs. This Northern California girl moved 1500 miles to find the love of her life. And, behind that sweet, innocent smile he is a happy man.

She is the sister to 4 beautiful sisters. Oh, there is a protective brother in this clan :-). She is a glass half full type of girl, there is always a bright side of something. You just need to think on it. She always greets people with a smile. Good or bad.

Follow the 3 RES: RESpect for others. RESpect for yourself. RESponsibilities for all your actions. That's her philosophy

She looks like the "girl next door". Sweet, innocent, the "take me home to meet your mother" type. But, behind closed doors SHE ROCKS HER MANS WORLD!!!!

She believes in Karma, you'll get back what you give. Make sure you're handing out some of the good stuff. She gives 2nd chances, no one is perfect and we all make mistakes. Greet the day and people with a smile, it will make your day better and maybe theirs.

And last, you are never too old to start over or to take a dream and make it reality. She has!! And, enjoying every minute of it. OH!! Can you guess her age? Did you guess, 52?

ALLYSHA Le Clair

Born Canadian of course. Always that one chick hanging with guys, its just less drama. She is rough. Not afraid to get a little dirty! An extremist at heart. Her love for sports includes paintballing, Snowboarding, Beach Volleyball! During some spare time, being an activist slash volunteer for Greenpeace has been some what liberating . True hippie styles . Studied Medical Aesthetics. Travel has always been the best solution for her restlessness, and boredom. learning more from her journeys, and life experiences in doing so. Modelling has become that outlet needed to achieve more than just a pretty Image. It incorporates most things Allysha enjoys. Travel, exercise, meeting new people from all over, Beaches, Bikini babes, Sun, and of course the Ocean! Her art is eternal no matter the form in which she chooses to present it. Paper, Photograph, Written, Body language, Music. We live one life. Happy, and humble being able to live a life she loves. She's built for this! Conquered her demons! Been lied to, paid, broken, stolen from, hungry, and full, lost, and found! Her name dragged through the dirt more than once. She's picked it up, dusted that shit off! She's self made, and has come a long way! She still has a long way to go. Striving for better. And once you've tasted better you do better! Bikini Boss Babe ! Do everything with passion. Stay true to friends, family, and loved ones. Soft hearted, but genuine! Her master plan in the making!

Courtney Myers

Ever since her first photo shoot, she knew she was destined to succeed as a swimsuit model. Her journey, though short, has been life changing. Currently she's enjoying the beaches of the east coast, supporting her Navy husband, and working on her college degree. Catch her at Hooters in Virginia Beach and follow her accounts to see her succeed.

Jess Bailey

My name is Jess Bailey, I am a confident, outgoing 25 year old who love to make a fool of myself, I love going to gym and meeting new people. I have some work experience in promotional and photographic work. I have been in many contests Mostly Swimswear and would love to be able to gain more experience, and see what further opportunities that can help to expand my portfolio! I have always had a High interest in Modeling and love it.

I have a passion for health and fitness and as an empowering female, I love helping people by encouraging and developing human potential for greatness. Winning the cover for Inside Fitness Magazine is the first in a series of goals that I wish to pursue. As a Canadian model born in Toronto, I have been published in magazines such as centrefold in Muscle Memory Magazine 2014, RHK Magazine 2014, and many more, and I have placed 2nd in Canada's Hot and Fit 100! I am an independent woman who is very ambitious, yet playful and fun. I perceive myself as an alpha female that carries sweet and nurturing characteristics. Nothing makes me happier than to own and be in charge of my own destiny. I am very sexual and passionate especially when involved in a relationship. I usually get what I want when I set my mind to it! I am never embarrassed to ask for what I want, and assertive is not a word that I am uncomfortable with. Being indecisive and wishy washy is not in my vocabulary. I like a gentleman who is confident, polite and intelligent who knows how to handle me.

Maja

Maja is an up and coming model. She is 21 years old and lives in northern Massachusetts. She is the first American born in her family history. The rest of her family is from Serbian. She was born in New Jersey in October, which makes her a fisty Scropio. Even though she was born in New Jersey, she grew up in New England as an only child. Don't let that fool you and say everything's been handed to her. She can most certainly fight for what she wants. She has bright green eyes and an hourglass frame. And if that doesn't get your attention, she's also bilingual. She started modeling at the age of 20 and has seemed to stop yet. Her goals are to become a published model and a household name.

Noelani Young

Noelani has been a model for a little over four years now and she is loving every bit of it. The relationships that she has made with the photographers and models in the industry has helped her passion thrive. The amount of energy and time that she puts into each photoshoot certainly shows in the outcome of the photos. As shoots and shoots go by, she takes a little something away from each one, whether it be a tip, a great photo, or even just a great time. Noelani is a very driven individual who strives for excellence in whatever she puts her heart too. She lives by the quote, "What you get by achieving your goals is not as important as what you become by achieving your goals" by Henry David Thoreau. By focusing on her goals in life it has shaped the person she is today.

My name is Victoria but most people call me Vicky. I am 26 years old and I am 100% Vietnamese. Yes it is true I am Vietnamese. I know I know I have big eyes for an asian but assume that's a unique trait about me. I am a proud mother of a precious 4 year old boy. I still consider him my baby boy. I am happily married to my soul mate. I am very blessed to say that everything in my life has just been amazing. I believe that you should live your life to the fullest, always be positive no matter what.

I started modeling in 2007 but I wasn't that all serious about it. I then went back to modeling in 2011 and started shooting almost every week. It became a craving. A passion. I absolutely love the creativity you can capture in a photograph. When I model it takes me to a different world, a world where I can be whatever I want to be. It's the best stress reliever. I can feel myself progressing through out the years. I hope that one day I make it big in this industry, to be published, to be recognized, to have that fulfillment and accomplishment. I know that one day I will make it there. The world is ready to see this girl :)

Midas@Fedora

A twenty-seven year old photographer going by his nickname of Midas, opened a studio in 1995 with a goal, to establish a presence in a tiny town where no studios existed. He envisioned a place where up and coming models could develop their portfolios without driving two hours to the nearest city. And to see these models published in print either in ads or articles. However in small towns the talent was scarce and most clients were content with staying home. After a few years without getting a model established and published and with pressure from his fiancé; Midas closed the doors, sold his cameras and studio equipment and rode west to Tennessee with his soon to be wife.

Still the idea left behind in small town Virginia never left Midas. Now married and with a child, a subject would catch his eye and could picture the person in a pictorial. However with no camera in his possession, he would never see his visions come to life.

In 2011, it wasn't much but his family bought him a small point and shoot digital camera and the following year Midas decided to step back into the photography world. And by 2012, social networking opened doors which never existed and he found subjects which became new clients. And by early 2014, he began to work with established models and helped to open doors into publishing. Within four months, Midas' work and models have been featured in 10 publications including Bikini Magazine (July and November 2014 plus January 2015) and two clients are in their 2015 calendar, Miss July & Miss September. All this with no fancy cameras and no studio just using a camera, flash, and laptop.

Midas is uncertain what will happen in 2015 but he is sure the 27 year old in a small town would be green with envy.
