BELARUSIAN BEAUTY

I'm Anya 26 yrs old, from Brooklyn, NY. Exotic Belarusian brunette, brown eyes. I get that I have a unique European face as a commercial print model and look younger than I am. I am 5'4" but I look taller especially in my photos.

Swimsuit Centerfold has been an unforgettable modeling experience, reality pageant show coming soon. Please follow the social media of the show. Credits to the photographers that I have worked with on set.

My recent and present photographers I have worked with are Peter Koloff from Brooklyn, John Tyler/Bossio Photography Inc. and Jack Dun from NJ, Photographer/model Ray Clanton from reality show The Face, and make up artist MHUA from Brooklyn. Thanks to those I have just listed and myself for being driven for my dream.

I am not a high fashion NYC model but I am willing to achieve my dream and give what it takes to succeed in this industry. I want to pursue my dream to teach other girls there is more to modeling than just high fashion; and modeling is about where your look fits in the industry and who wants you as their model. If an agency doesn't accept you, keep trying and stay focused. Model even if it's just for exposure. You know what people or what connections you can make in the modeling world. I have already achieved my dream with Swimsuit Centerfold, now it's time to continue whatever doors will open for me.

I am almost 27 years old, not worrying about having kids in my life right now, for now... even though I love them. My hobbies are swimming, working out, having some beach time as much as possible, I love traveling especially to tropical places.

Thank you, and thanks to everyone for their support and who has been there for me, for not giving up on my dream.

ASHLEE ARNOLD

To start off my names Ashlee! Some people call me Ash, some call me Tiny Pants and my last names Arnold so I've also had the "hey Arnold" nickname growing up. I'm pretty laid back so not much bothers me. I played sports growing up. Softball and soccer, but basketball was always my favorite. I was a huge tomboy growing up also. Still to this day sweatpants and a t-shirt will always be my favorite outfit to kick around in. I believe in endless possibilities and whatever you set your mind to you CAN do it. I am a huge family person and I have one of the biggest hearts you'll probably ever come in contact with. I'm so thankful for my parents and everything they've done for me, if it wasn't for them I don't know where I'd be.

If I had a love life I would totallyyy be down to talk about it but.. Ya I don't really have one of those! I have only let one guy ever meet my parents and that was when I was like 13 so does that really count? No not really. Maybe that says a lot about the guys I have dated but hey I'm learning! I have learned to never settle for anything less than you deserve for sure. Actions speak louder than words and that's definitely something that'll always be in my head while dating.

I started modeling about a year ago. A local photographer from my hometown (Harold Strout) saw me and had asked me to come in and do some test shots. We kept shooting and shooting, fixing the little mistakes, and he continued to help me be successful. I'm super thankful for him making me feel that anything is possible and helping me gain confidence in myself. He always told me to "never stop giving up." I plan on continuing modeling until I reach my goals on where I want to be.

Photo creds to Kaun Hetki for taking this amazing picture. So thankful for him also believing in me and helping me adjust into becoming a successful model. I highly recommend any model starting out to go to him

MeganLeonardo

Hi I'm Megan Leonardo, I love modeling and it's my main passion. I'm from Newton New Jersey and I've lived there all of my life. I attend Montclair State University and I'm studying English as my major. I'm a very hard working student, maintain a 4.0 GPA, I've been on the deans list every semester, and I'm in honor society. When I'm not modeling or studying, I spend all of my time in the gym working out. Maintaining a healthy lifestyle is a huge part of my life. My fitness activities include lifting, running, spin class, and yoga. Without the gym I would simply feel lost. When I have free time, I spend it with my close circle of friends. Usually we'll go shopping and get our nails done together.

I'm currently single and ready to mingle, but I'm more focused on my modeling career than anything. My pictures submitted were taken by my amazing agent Jeff Caso, and the bikinis I wore are from Victoria's Secret swimwear and OP swimwear. I did my hair and make up myself because I like to keep a natural look while I'm shooting :)

My name is Miini, and I'm a freelance model based in the GTA. I enjoy modeling, thanks to my photographer John from Memories Digital Imaging has given me the best experiences when it comes to photo shoots. After being turned down by a number of agencies due to not fitting the standard model height measurements, I came in contact with him. We have done all kinds of shoots together, but no matter the theme or location, he always wants to make sure that we are both comfortable, and that my ideas are priority. I have had bad experiences in the past with photographers, but he is very respectful and laid back! It's hard to ask for anything more.

We've done family shoots, cosplay shoots, and he's even encouraged me to make a submission to the Toronto Sun, and I was actually published in the Sunday April 19, 2015 edition of the Sunshine girl. I am definitely going to continue to pursue modeling. It is an interesting adventure, and you never know where you'll go next!

I like to see the beauty in nature-the beautiful sunsets, growing trees, falling leaves and happy children. Happiness is a big thing for me. Maybe it's the maternal side of me, but I love to see everyone happy, especially my family. My son and my daughter both mean the world to me, and I would do anything to keep my joyful, gorgeous babies laughing and smiling. I believe that you can harvest the most happiness for yourself by bringing happiness to others, and that is a virtue that I am very big on!

I love to be occupied. In my free time (which is rarely. Me time is our time in mommy world), I love to draw and create art, workout, play video games, cook/bake, but mostly research conspiracy theories. I love theories and everything linked to them. Personally, I think that they're interesting, and I love brain stimulation. Anything that possesses a challenge, I like to explore. One of my favorite on-the-go games is Sudoku!

I'm a Gemini, which is usually my excuse for not being able to make up my mind. I definitely love to model, and will continue to do so, but it's not the only stop on my itinerary. I want a future filled with all of my passions. I also love to cook, so I am aiming to open my own restaurant/diner in the near future. Another goal of mine is to reach my ideal weight and continue training in Muay Thai, and MMA, so that hopefully I can make it to the UFC one day! Why think small when you have so many opportunities, right? Always think big, and dream bigger!

MICHAEL KELLER

My name is Tami Leo, a very determined model and public figure. I started modeling once I got out of the Navy to bring awareness to Sexual Assault. I am not only an advocate to show other victims that we can overcome it, but wanting to send a message that we can feel sexy and strong in our skin again. I, myself, am a Survivor and I love sharing my story to inspire others that we are powerful just by staying alive and fighting our PTSD. I am only 23 years old, and have seen more than enough in my little lifetime and plan on doing so much more! I have traveled to nine different countries and about to do a road trip tour of the United States with my amazing Service Dog Mya! I started modeling a year ago in September 2014, and it has definitely been an experience; from getting my hands dirty while working on ships and helicopters to looking pretty and learning to wear make-up. It has helped and still is helping me find the inner beauty and helping me grow my confidence back up again. I have shot in fashion, glamour, pin up, horror, bikini, and even lingerie and some implied nude, which I thought I would never have the confidence to do but I did! I have even walked down the runway for a few fashion shows, which is still nerve wrecking, and I have met tons of people in the industry, some who have become really good friends and helped me get stronger. I hope to become bigger in the industry while helping others, it really is my inspiration and motivation!
