Hannah Grigereit

Hannah Grigereit originally from Bozeman Montana and now resides in North Hollywood adds a little Midwest flair to the LA dance and modeling scene as she spent her undergraduate years in St. Louis Missouri earning her BA in dance from Webster University. Hannah Studied Horton technique from Alvin Ailey's own principal dancer Alicia Graff, and Classical Ballet from NYC Ballet's Gen Horiuchi and Micheal Uthoff, as well as Jazz, acro, historical modern, choreography, and delving into all other aspects necessary to create a strong understanding and passion for the art of contemporary concert dance. Hannah also had the opportunity to independently study Aerial Dance including trapeze, lyra, and silks. She dabbled into the realm of hip-hop dance opening up for STL's own claim to fame Nelly. Hannah was a featured solo company burlesque dancer for the Jumping Jupiter touring Company for 2 years before leaving St. Louis. After St. Louis Hannah continued to pursue her passion for dance by forming an all girls hip-hop group in which she auditioned talent, booked, coordinated and choreographed for 4 months on a self led dance tour throughout mainland China. Hannah has worked on many independent short films, music videos, and live dance projects since moving to LA as well as working with The LA Sirenes circus group adding fire apparatus and grinding skills to her repertoire. Hannah is very excited to be delving further into this new artistic form of expression as a model for Mr. Michael Keller. She has worked primarily as a dance and athletic model previous to this shoot and is loving the chance to use her whole physical self in this realm of work.

My name is Nina and I am from Santiago Chile, I was raised on the East Coast near Philadelphia and now live in beautiful California. I moved out here to pursue my dreams and follow my destiny. I have my degree in Psychology and I attend California State San Marcos pursuing a third degree. I grow through helping others and involving myself in charities and good causes.

I've been modeling since I was 11 years old and don't plan on stopping anytime soon. I am also a classically trained singer and actress who loves to paint, make jewelry, sketch and create beautiful ceramic pieces on the pottery wheel. I'm an adventurous free spirit who loves being outside, loves nature and lives for the simple things in life; a beautiful sunset, bonfires on the beach under the stars with family and friends, a delicious home cooked meal shared with loved ones. I am an ambitious dreamer who follows her heart and lived with passion, not fearing taking risks and going after my desires.

I am a fiery Latin and Italian woman who loves to fire it up in the kitchen and on the dance floor. I love gardening and growing my own food. I'm all about having a good time and making the best out of life, even when it gets tough, I squeeze the juice out of it. Life is too short not too! Traveling and exploring different cultures and food are things I really enjoy and hope to do more of in the future. Being bilingual comes in handy when I do travel. I can speak Spanish and took 2 yrs of French. Live music brings the wild child in me out, and horseback riding frees my soul. I am very thankful for all the blessings life has brought and hope to continue being blessed in my journey through life. Cheers!!

Hi, I'm Tori and I'm 20 years old. I've been modeling for about a year and a half in my spare time. I am a trained infant and kids swim instructor and nanny for a special needs boy. I love modeling because I like working with different people who have multiple ideas and looks. I'm pretty flexible in trying new things and love to see the end result of course! I also hula hoop, cook, do yoga, and babysit for about ten different families as well. I love staying active and enjoying the little things in life.
