Carrie and I started our journey to Vegas cruising "Topless" from San Jose. Great times laughing and memorable views along the coast.

Hi, I'm Carrie Englehart and I'm currently a successful business owner with IT Works! I enjoy modeling and it has given me opportunities to travel the world and compete internationally. I've been published in many magazines and calendars and glad to be in this one too. I enjoy watching my sports, especially the Orioles & Ravens.

I truly appreciate spending time with my man, Bocephus, best dog ever.

I live in this awesome place called Kelowna in British Columbia Canada and it's just absolutely beautiful! Wineries, mountains and lakes everywhere.

I have a big Lab/Rotti cross dog named Hank and he's the main man in my life.

This year was my first year really trying my hand at modelling, I went to the IBMS event in Vegas and it was amazing. I met so many wonderful people and got to shoot with some amazing photographers, it was such a great opportunity!

I have a pretty low key life. When

I'm not working I'm usually hanging with family, drinking wine or chilling with my pooch.

I'm a big fan of Star Wars, the Matrix Trilogy, Lord of the Rings and of course Harry Potter!!

Liz & I spent some time in my Vegas resident sisters place. I'll never forget the facial expression when she first went into the jacuzzi. One would think it would be warm... it was freezing cold. We laughed so hard.

Tamara & I hit it off immediately with the lighting on our very first picture taken. Usually it's checking to make sure settings were correct, I took one picture, reviewed the pic and told Tamara we are done and begun to walk away. She looked at me, what the hell, I turned around and started laughing. We had a great time especially with her favorite with the "Coke" props in the Ghost town.

My favorite quote: "Be who you are and say what you feel because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind." Dr. Seuss

When I'm not busy modeling you can find me on the golf course! I was introduced to golf about 6 years ago and have been addicted ever since. I also like to cook. I love to watch the food network too! My favorite TV show is "Chopped". It always inspires me to try something different.
