Ashley Kraai

I modelled successfully in my 20's and 30's after winning beauty contests, including MISS CORNWALL BIKINI and MISS CORNWALL SWIMWEAR.

Went on to run my own Award Winning Model Agency. The first of it's kind in three counties.

I retired at 40 due to a bad dose of Glandular Fever.

Re-launched at 57 as a mature model. I am now 67 and The Media call me The UK's OLDEST GLAMOUR MODEL.

I HAVE WORKED VERY HARD AT MY MODELLING FOR DECADES AND MODELLING IS MY PASSION.

I still get a BUZZ when placed on a cover of a magazine or book. I am Internationally published and very grateful to be still actively modelling at my age.

NO HRT, NO plastic surgery and I do not even dye my long hair. NO hair extensions either.

Ashley is a Michigan native living on the island of Maui. She is 29 years old and a US Navy veteran. After an honorable discharge, Ashley began college at the University of West Florida where she earned a bachelors of science degree in hospitality, recreation, and resort management. She is now happily living the island life with her two dogs and boyfriend.

Achievements: Ashley has been modeling since the age of 17 when she was an ambassador for Hicks Studio in Fenton, MI.

She has since been published in several magazines and is looking for representation/management. Ashley's dream goal would be to model for Sports Illustrated. Being a petite model, it is a tough goal, but every goal is worth working towards!

From shakopee, MN. Born in north Dakota, adopted by my mom, who was my nurse and lived in MN ever since! My mom and dad are the best and are one of the main reasons I was able to even get in to modeling and pursue my dream of becoming a model! I have been modeling for 5 years now and love doing it! I'm freelance so I find all my own work, which can make it difficult at times but over all it's so worth it! Being able to do what I love to do? Just putting the work in and seeing how far I've come just proves hard work truly does pay off!

Achievements: My short term goals are to just make it one day at a time. My long term would have to be fulfilling my dream of being a model, getting even more in the industry than I already have. I also really want to be a makeup artist and learn how to work the camera more! Become a triple threat if you know what I mean! I love helping pose people and being involved in the photoshoots to get the best possible image. The beauty/fashion industry has just always been what I see myself in, and I work hard every day to prove I deserve to be where I'm at.

I'm planning on working so hard that this is what single looks like. I have decided to just focus on me and what I need to do. Build my brand, start making more serious moves for a career and decided the best decision for me right now is to just be single and do what I want to do, when I want to help better myself. Future whoever is going to be so lucky when I get everything I've been working towards! Confidence is key and a little secret to that is fake it till you make it. I will never give up on myself and even if there is a day I feel like I cant do it, fake the positivity, I'll give myself that pep talk till I actually believe it again and that is how I plan to stay on top.

ElleRose

Hello Everyone Jessica Johnson here. A little bit about me, I'm a new freelance glamour, swimsuit and lingerie model based out of Portland, Oregon. I'm a sweet, outgoing, vibrant, thriving, friendly 30 year old woman. I stand a petite, 5'5", weighing 120 lbs, 34D-24-27 physique with long dark brown all natural curly hair. I'm a gorgeous, rare mix of Japanese and Trinidadian. I grew up in Lawrenceville, Georgia and moved quite often as a child because of my father being in the army. My parents are divorced so therefore I don't know much about my mother who is Japanese. I grew with my dad and little brother. Childhood for the most part was ok until I moved to Portland, Oregon. I have been bullied in school so I obtained my GED and was kind of going through a hard time in my life so that's how I really got into modeling. I made an account on model mayhem and been booking shoots ever since than.

Achievements: Model mayhem has helped me network with other local photographers in the Portland metro area. I have participated in Hot Import nights, was a ring girl, and been published in the NW creative arts.

I would love to be published in other magazines such as Maxim, Swimsuit Sports Illustrated, penthouse, and maybe even for Playboy.

I am a mother to three amazing boys and one in which has just been recently with cerebral palsy so that's why I mentioned I have been modeling off and on because I had to take time to see what's wrong with one of the twins.

Due to the fact that I was bullied in middle and high-school, modeling has really helped me build my confidence as I was always made fun of for having a flat face or tight asian eyes. I have always love modeling because of the Victoria's Secret Fashion show watching all the beautiful girls walk up and down the runway so that's how I got interested in the industry. see what's with one
