Born and raised in South Alabama, I'm the oldest with two brothers! Stayed in the area after graduation and now work in the medical industry, but modeling has ALWAYS been a big part of my dream, and I have experience modeling most every genre, but lingerie and bikini modeling is my LOVE, because it makes me feel SO GOOD about myself! I use modeling as a huge confidence booster and plan on some BIGGER projects soon to increase my exposure in the industry!

Achievements: I've been published in SEVERAL magazines already although I feel like I've just begun!!! My love life is a little bit complicated right now lol but tall, dark, handsome, and RICH is right at the top ;) I LOVE the Fifty Shades of Gray series for various reasons haha and dream one day of that lifestyle and my modeling to take me to places I've only envisioned.....MAYBE this is my start!

My name is Jordan Melissa, I live in Derbyshire, UK. I have a loving mum, dad, grandad and two sisters, me being the middle sibling. I attended primary and secondary school, I also attended college twice studying catering and then Media makeup where I obtained a level 3. I have 3 years modelling experience and I plan to have many many more. I love modelling, its something I believe I was born to do, I don't enjoy anything more. My goal is to be the best I can be and achieve as much as I possibly can. I have got to where I am today in the modelling world all by myself, I started from nothing, I organised a few TF shoots and I built up my portfolio from there, I have now worked with a lot of photographers, so many I have lost count, I have had the chance to work with some of the most amazing photographers too! I have been published in 14 magazines and online, I also have an interview published. I have 15 brands who I model/promote for, I work with videographers to produce promo videos for myself or for any brands.

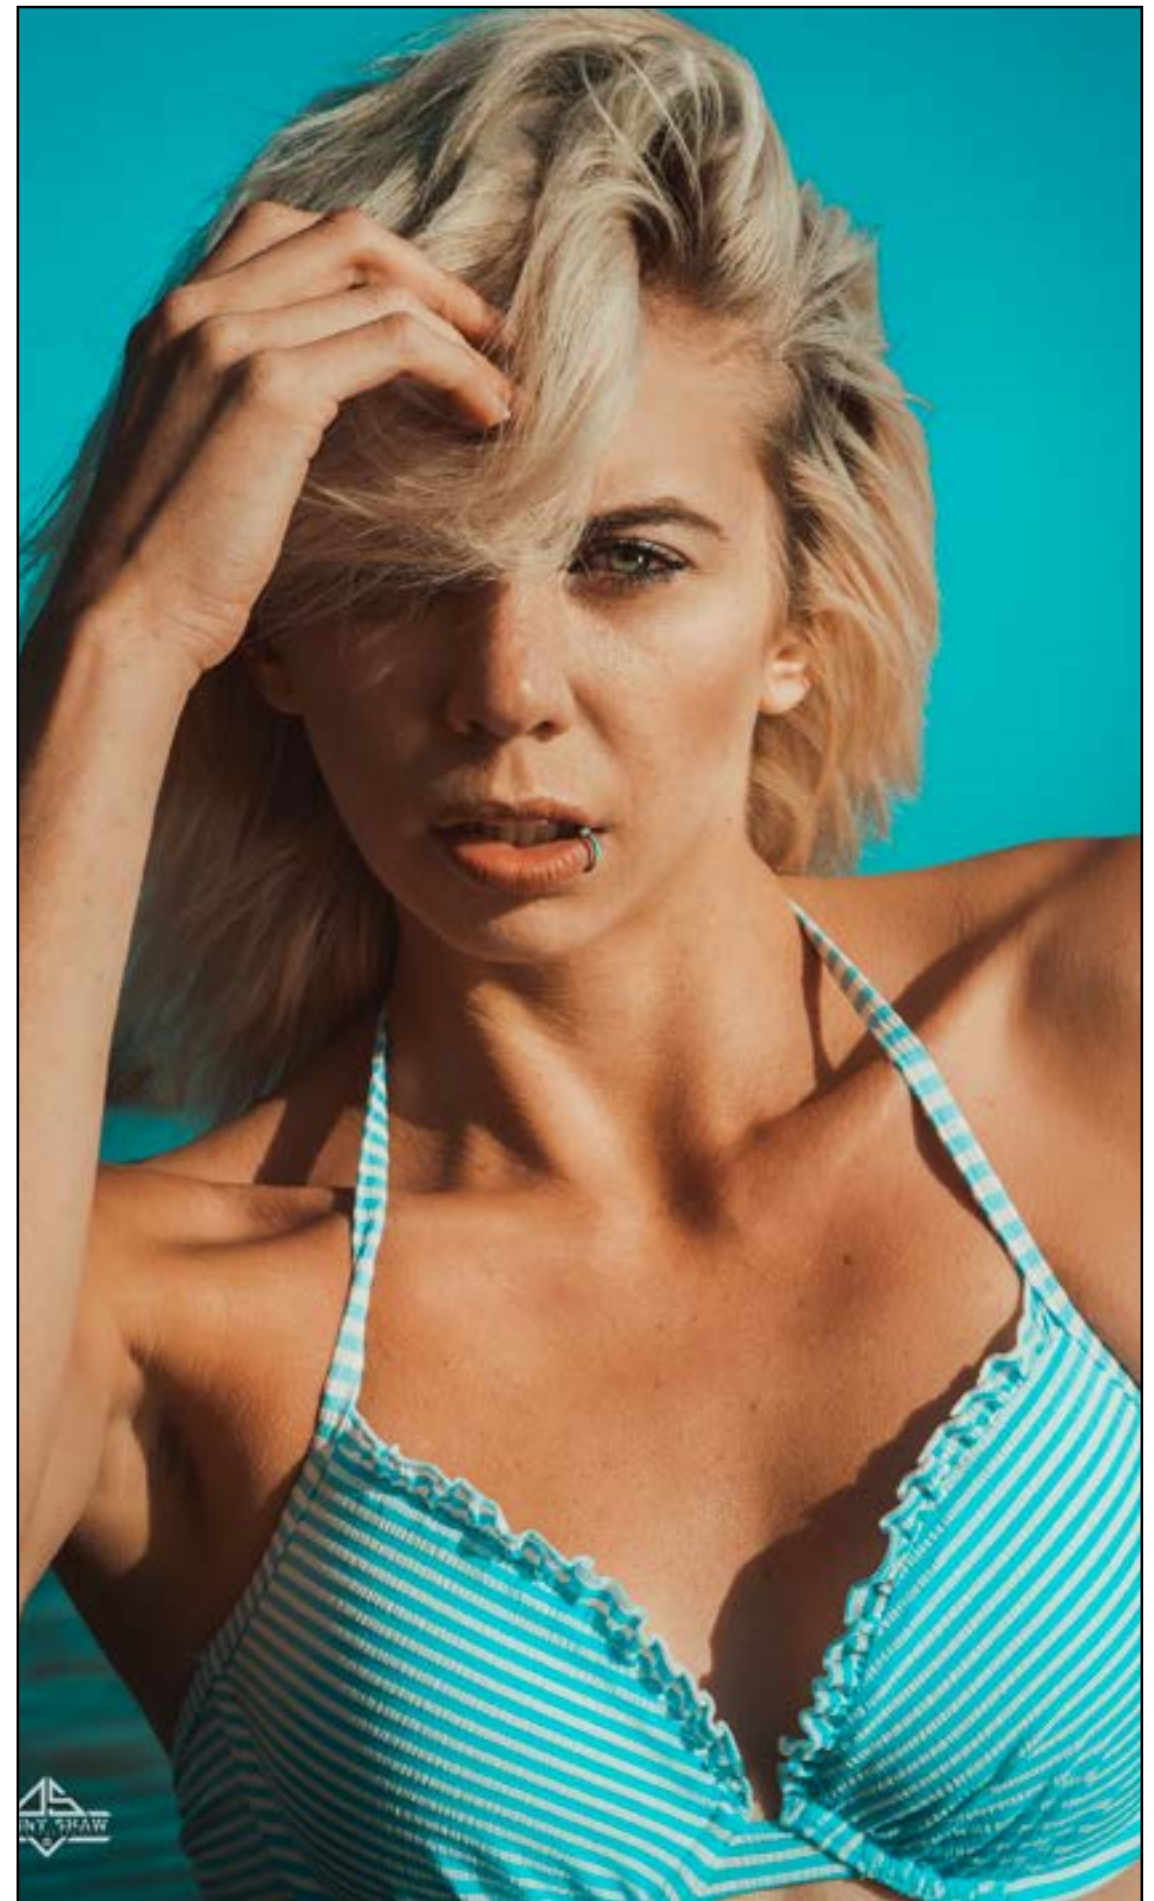

Achievements: My little secrets are I drink 4 pints of milk a day, I can be a real sucker for playing sport and lastly I can contort my body in weird ways. My personal challenge is to be completely and totally comfortable and happy in my own skin and to pass on own experiences to help other people feel better about themselves or life.

Doing business and raising babies.

Mother of two, pinup model, social worker and tattoo studio owner Dahlia Black breaks all molds.

I admire any woman who can juggle a successful career, healthy lifestyle and family life. Dahlia carries herself with so much grace although her children shall grow up thinking shes a badass someday for pursuing her dreams.

She looks like an elixir of colour and passion but if you manage to sit her down for five minutes, you shall soon realise she is an entrepreneur.

Achievements: Q: If you did not have the career you have now, what would you want to be doing?

I've always aspired to be a police officer, or to work in the field of criminal psychology. I'm pretty content with where I am now, but I could still pursue those options down the track.

Q: Tell us about your kids?

I have two kids, a one year old boy and two year old girl. My daughter is a fiery little thing, she's so stubborn and strong. And my boy is a sweet, giggly and gentle soul who LOVES his Mama. They are the best, ever.

Q: What is your parenting style?

I don't really know how to describe my parenting style, I'd say it's very affectionate and loved up parenting - my children are always told how beautiful, special and loved they are!

Q: How do your kids feel about your tattoos?

Sometimes I don't think they even notice that Mummy is any different to anyone else, it's the norm for them. One day I'm sure they'll think I'm so uncool though! Ha

Q: Have you ever faced any discrimination due to being a tattooed mom? What happened?

I do get a lot of judgemental looks, which I noticed a lot from hospital staff while I was pregnant actually. I haven't had any outright rude comments to my face, but have definitely felt judgment from other parents.

Q: Tell us about your tattoos? Who did them? What do they mean and which one is your favourite?

Most of my tattoos are by my darling husband Aaron Smith, at our tattoo studio Faith Hope Charity Tattoo in Flemington. Majority of them don't mean anything, I love traditional tattoo imagery which is why I have the style that I do - I do have a few pieces that are special though. My favourite would probably be my stomach piece.

Q: With such a busy schedule and so many kids - how do you make time for your family? Do you have any tips on balancing a successful career and family?

It's really hard for us to make time to enjoy each other's company, but we always have at least one designated day of the week where we go out as a family. I don't really have any tips on how to manage, I'm of the mind that a short term sacrifice is worth it for a long term pay off - so missing a few things now because I need to work hard means that I will have more time/freedom/money to enjoy everything when I've established myself properly.

Q: What is your idea for "me-time"?

A nice bubble bath, or a relaxing massage are my favourite me-time activities.

Q: Would you rather fight a vampire, werewolf or a zombie? Why?

Oh, that's hard. I think a vampire would be the easier fight of the three so I'll go with that!

Zoozoom was born from the passion for photography and the wild animal species of the world. Together, we can make awareness and try to make more visible and help with the problems of these species.

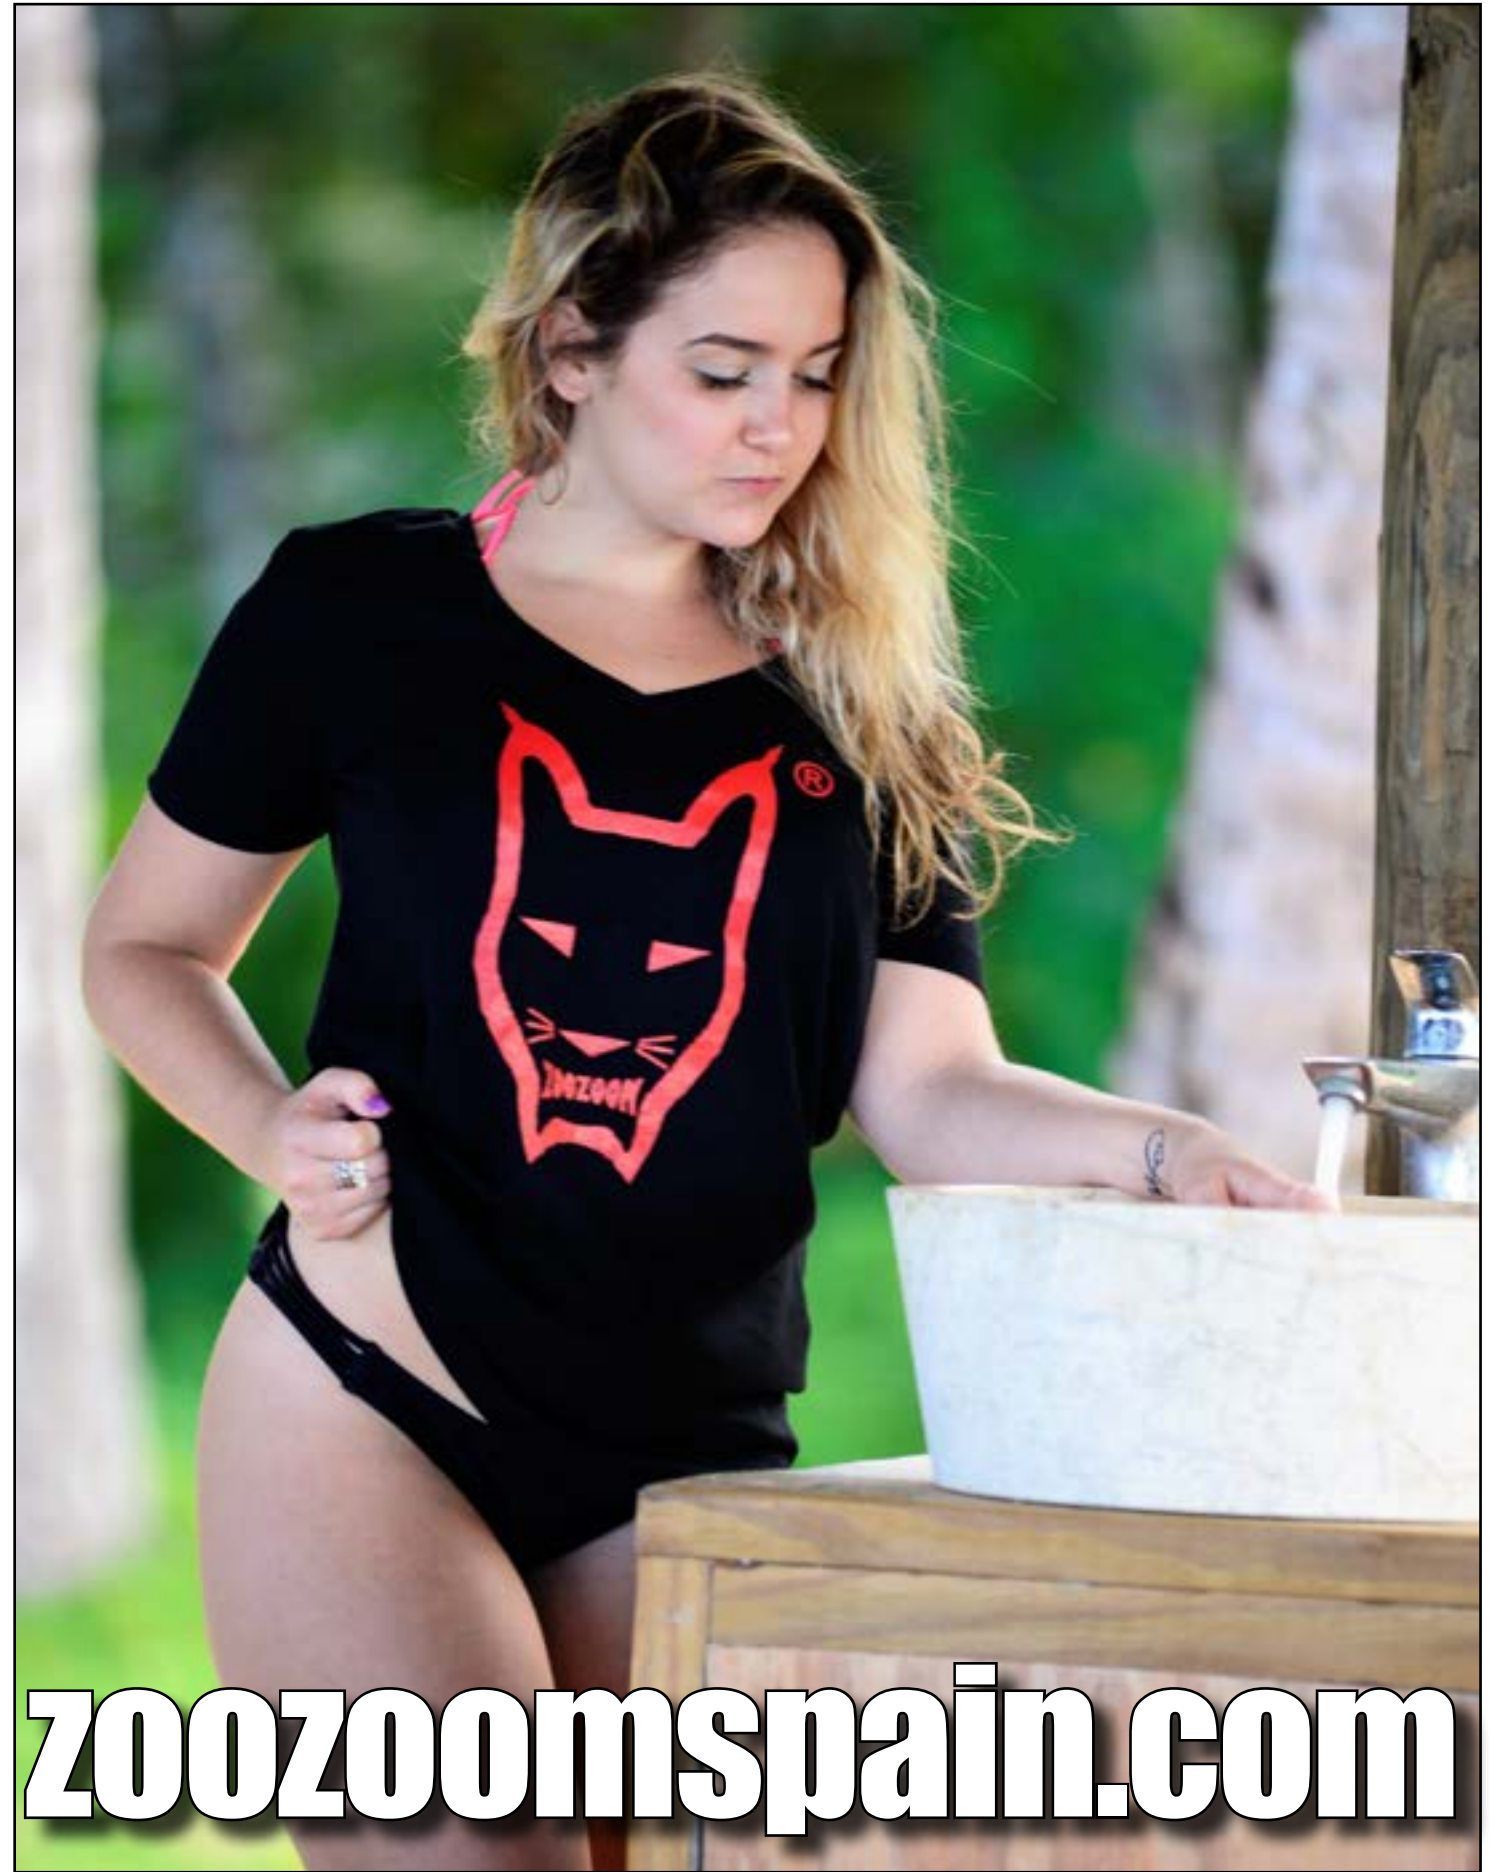

From photography to your life, a statement of support for those who have no voice in nature, and for the preservation of their habitat.

These wild animals have their greatest danger in man, we believe it is the duty of man to try to avoid it, in zoozoom we want to remind you of the importance of preserving nature and helping to prevent the extinction of these animals.

With each purchase we contribute together with WWF to avoid their extinctions.

About You: Lives: Orlando, Fl

Background: just a small town girl who was raised on country music and southern morals. Originally from Chicopee, Massachusetts but have lived in Florida for 18 years.

Family: family is everything to me. I am the middle child of 2 of the best brothers any girl could ask for. Unfortunately I come from a broken family but my parents did all they could for us and still do. My older brother was killed 2 years ago on 11/22/16 that was one of the worse days of my life. My younger brother is my world and I couldn't be proud of where he's going in life. My mom is currently battling breast cancer and she's kick butt as anyone should she's our hero.

School: college Achievements: Experience: I always grew up with being told I'd never be able to model I was to ugly, obese and I'd never be anything. I am the small town country girl next door. I actually in June of 2018 had a photographer tell me again I needed to lose weight, get fake boobs, fake tan and dye my hair cause no one would ever take me serious in the modeling field. It did discourage me till I found IBMS and they accepted me for me.

goals: to move to Nashville one day and just live happy and free and be a published model one day.

Love life: single but looking for my redneck Romeo the one to make me believe in love again.

Tiffany Champagne is a Model-Actress originally from NYC but enjoying life in Hollywood.

She comes from a conservative upper-class upbringing and has an education in the Arts and Acting fields.

Having been raised in New York City, she socialized with the models that were going to the same private school in NYC. "Tiffany: I was shopping in Bloomingdale's with them at 14 years old and buying Chanel purses. Their lifestyle so impressed me, and everyone around me suggested I try modeling I was signed up to a big NYC agency where I started to do Modeling for junior fashion. Wearing lots of make-up for photo-shoots, I got to be a blonde and looked 18 years old. Of course, I pushed the limits. My parents were somewhat shocked at my make-up and grown-up looks, but I knew this was what I wanted. It was the very best time of my life, and I was addicted to it and knew it was what I wanted to do."

It was so much fun wearing all the makeup at an early age and being a junior model.

Tiffany knew she wanted to be in the creative fields and went on to Art College and studied Acting with some famous acting schools in Hollywood. She is a published model and has acting credits to her name.

In a few years, my family moved to California where my dad was transferred to a high position.

I went to prominent acting classes and studied acting which led to some acting projects.
