I am 21 years old & have been modeling professionally about 2 years. I am East Coast based, but I travel! One of my most recent experiences was roadtripping to California from New Jersey November-December 2019. I currently have 5+ publications, and 3+ covers. I am dedicated to expanding & evolving myself as an individual and taking advantage of my opportunities I've been receiving in this industry. I'd love to be able to do what I do consistently as a career, that's my current goal (to upkeep modeling full time)

There is one thing the photograph must contain the humanity of the the moment. In photography there is a reality so subtle that it becomes more real than reality.

Janet Ward

I started modeling about 6 years ago at the age of 40 to help boost my self-esteem. Not only did I do this to help myself, but to help other women empower their beauty no matter our age or what we have been through in life. I enjoy going out and exploring nature, taking hikes, camping with friends and family, fishing, horseback riding, 4 wheeling and road trips. I love going on rides looking at nature taking photographs of all different kinds of things, such as new and old architecture, abandoned places (urban exploring), historical sites, and nature.

While I enjoy all types of modeling, I really love to model with cars or motorcycles, modeling in nature, or anything creative. One of the fun parts of modeling to me is getting published in magazines. It is one of my goals to get published as much as possible in magazines or calendars with inked and automotive themes. To me, tattoos and piercings are sexy in which I have several of both.

My biggest enjoyment in life however, are my two children and my two grandchildren. They are my life..

I am 43 years old and am a graduate of the Excel school for Models and Talent Academy in Little Rock Arkansas. I have modeled for David's Bridal fashion show several times in Olive Branch Mississippi. I have also modeled for Old Navy twice and JC Penny's once.

My name is Jessica Stoner, I'm 24 years old and live in my hometown called Payson, Az. I'm a mommy to a beautiful baby boy and wanna be able to give him the best future. I am a very outgoing bubbly human, I'm caring, sweet, and funny but I try not to give myself to much credit. I always put others before myself and will continue to do so well till I die.

I would have to say my goals and achievements would be to just grow as a person and learn new experiences, open new doors for me and my son In the future. I want to keep striving and working hard for the things I get and or will receive. For challenges and successes I would have to say being a single mom is rough, my challenge everyday is to get up and provide for my sons needs and mine. It's also so successful in the end because at the end of the day, week, and year I know I worked so hard for that kid to look up to me as a hero or influencer in his life. I wanna make a change for me and my son for the better. I was discovered by Michael Kostopoulos on Facebook and he gave me the most amazing opportunity I couldn't of asked for. I'm now a model for his company Babygirlfashions where I will have my own line of swim wear and lingerie and maybe even more if I'm lucky :). I think Michael could be the one to help me open new doors and give me experiences I never thought I would have. He's been more then amazing and I could never repay him for all his hard work and dedication he's put into me. For that I will always look up to Michael.

Katelyn Minton

Model Katelyn Minton came from Maryland to Ohio to do this end of the summer shoot; she has been modeling since 2016 and A&D Photography was her first shoot to kick off her modeling career, so it was nice to reunite with her this past month. Katelyn is fun, energetic, and always positive. She has worked diligently on her figure, and is up at the crack of dawn to work out daily at the gym; she also runs 3 miles every other day during the week. She is a mom with 2 sons, who keep her extremely busy, but she always finds the time to do work on herself and her modeling.

Lucy T

Hi! My name is Lucy. I was born in Czech Republic but raised in Toronto since I was five years old. I've been modelling for several years now and it's been a rocky but wild ride so far! I don't really have a specific niche I like to do a little bit of everything but you see me mostly in lingerie, implied, lifestyle, glamour, implored and art nudes.

In the beginning I didn't have much of an appreciation for it as I do now. Modelling has taught me so much but mainly to love myself; to love every perfection and imperfection LOUD AND PROUD. Through my years of experience, I've been in fashion shows, published in magazines, been on a cover of a magazine (once so far), done music videos, mentored some models and been on a podcast from LA. There's so many goals I want to accomplish a couple of them are to travel the world for paid work and events, campaign fashion brands and apparel, land more magazine covers, appear on Playboy and Vogue Magazine, and perhaps have my own Talent Agency. I want to change the beauty standards in this industry. You don't have to look a certain way to be classified as beautiful. I want to showcase that REAL women with scars, stretch marks, cellulite, curves; different heights, shapes, sizes and ethnicities are beautiful too.

Photographer Joseph Manfredi Photography

My whole life has been like a long winding road of craziness and fuckery. But I will say that I have achieved alot at 28 years old. I'm a full-time student getting my masters degree in social work, My 200 YTT yoga training certification, as well as that I model and I'm an artist. I grew up poor but humble. I fought tooth and nail to be where I am today and its taken alot to get here now. I have overcome abuse, heartache, and trauma. No matter what it was it never pulled me under. I just kept swimming. My future goals are to be a licensed therapist, a professional artist, and a cover model for bikini and lingerie magazines, etc. I absolutely love being in front of the camera. It makes me feel like I can step into another world for a minute or two and be someone else. I absolutely love to dance, read, write, go to the beach, and go on adventures!
