I developed a passion for modelling since i was 10 years old. I used to secretly watch Fashion TV when nobody in my family was around. When i was 15years old my father asked me what i want to pursue as a career. I said i don't know yet but, one thing i am sure is that i wanna be an actress/model. Of course he refused me and said it is too much struggle and will deshame us. Nobody in our family did this ever. The fire inside me was still alive in the coming years. At the age of 20 i started participating in fashion shows organised at the University where i was studying Bachelor's degree. I was very confident from the moment i hit that damn ramp! It felt like the beginning to a better version of me. I was very happy and my performance was praised by many. I performed for three years consecutively at the University. At 24 i got pushed by my cousin to enter into professional modelling since i have this passion in me and i am so good at it. I thought why not give it a try! If i don't do modelling then i will regret my entire life. I will give it a try if it ends bad, it is a lesson to learn and if it ends good then it will be a good memory! Coincidentally i received a Facebook message saying they are looking for a model for an international shoot. I had done deep research before accepting the shoot and it went amazing. My very first shoot and i nailed it

I was so confident, bold and beautiful and most importantly i enjoyed my work. I ended up with a very good photographer who became my friend later! I felt very safe around him for a kick start to my career! From there i started receiving lot of photoshoots, some auditions for advertisements, print shoots, few movie offers, beauty pageant offers, etcetera. I participated in first beauty pageant in my life and i won a subtitle. I was just shining like a star out there! Then, i decided to move to a different country for my career growth. I tried doing artistic nude and found it very sensual. The results came out amazingly beautiful. I travel a lot in Europe for shoots. My levels range from fashion till artistic nude. I have now total 8years of experience as a model. My journey as a professional model was very challenging because i have to always make sure that i am into a right project with a genuine person, hide my work from my parents, I had to make sure all the pre-communications are going well. I didn't knew anything about makeup so had to learn and practice that as well. I had to promote my work on social media. I even went for social gatherings and parties for good networking with people in the industry. With nobody by your side to guide you through the whole process of communication and finding out a right person/ project was the most challenging phase i would say!

My goal is to become a supermodel one day. I would like to say to all the upcoming models that this journey is yours and go for it. There is no shortcut to success and no time to regret!

I was born and raised in Fort Walton Beach, I grew up with just a father playing all different kinds of sports. I've always been into modeling and trying to get into it. I graduated from school in 2019, and am hoping to start my cosmetology career path in the fall time when school starts.

Achievements: I started working at a very young age due to parents having money issues and me wanting to be able to help out. All of my goals are more hard to achieve but I always push myself to get there. I recently was married in February on Valentine's Day, and we are now separated trying to fix our marital issues. It's been a crazy few months. For only being 18 I've gone through many different issues that I've had to push through, such as I have been raped and molested at different ages, and I dealt with my parents divorcing at a very young age. Getting through these challenges were hard, but you can always get through things.

I am a 46 year old British freelance model who has been modeling now for over 10 years. One of the best parts of modeling for me is getting the chance to work with like minded creative people. During my last holiday in Cape Verde I had the pleasure of working with such a talented photographer who shares the same passion as I do for creating images.

Lovely afternoon spent at this beautiful location #riouareg beach in boa vista.

My name is Kaysi Keller, I am from Mesa Arizona and I have always enjoyed being in the open outdoors. Waking up every morning to the crisp clean 6 am wakeboard ride was fulfilling. I had found my drive, the love of my life. If you ever find yourself so indulged with the beauty in the serenity with nature, stay there I highly recommend. You never know what endless opportunities can arise with living life at your fullest...Here we go, there I am working like usual, Getting my daily routine in and out of no where someone saw the potential I had in myself, never would I ever think in a million years it would happen to me, just like the first time I got on that wakeboard. In retrospect picking up that ski rope was just as captivating as receiving this phone call regarding the opportunities that I had been given. With all that being said, always regard your individuality, always stay true to your balance in life and never let go of that ski rope. Forever floating a drift just is not a option.

I'm Magda Mercedes Madam. Pisces sign I was born in Havana, Cuba. I am 28 years old. I have lived in Cuba, Ecuador, Belarus, Russia and the USA. I can speak and write Spanish, English, French and Russian fluently. Recently I participated in different beauty pageants in the City of Houston: Miss Amity Usa 2018. Winning as Miss Maximum Angel Queen of the Miss Beauty of the Universe 2018 contest. I also won the Our Houston Model 2018-2019 Contest, which I am representing as current queen. I am in MIAMI, Florida, where I am also working as a model with different agencies and photographers of high international recognition. I'm graduated of marketing and food and beverage management. I am a good candidate for the opportunity since I stay active on social media and I am an excellent influencer. I maintain positivity among my followers. I promote a healthy lifestyle. I am enthusiastic, enterprising and a good communicator. Thanks for the opportunity in advance.

Achievements: I am enjoying my life near the sea in the city of Miami, I am exploring the city and I love it. I often visit many Russian restaurants and what I enjoy most besides the food, is to talk to the Russian people and see the expression on their faces when they hear me speak in Russian.

I live in sunny Florida with two families. One blood and one adopted from middle school. I graduated in 2017 from ridgeview high. All my life up to my junior and senior year I was overweight and called fat. I finally lost all my weight and gained the bikini body that I missed and wanted.
Achievements: I don't have a lot of experiences some people would say. But I post some modeling photos on my Instagram almost on a daily when I can. I've had a hard and rough life the past couple years with losing the love of my life and found I was cheated on and lied to. I've met awesome friends and have gained quite a few kid like figures that I met through and at cosplay convention's and now known as a con mom. I'm 21 and born on Valentine's day. I'd love to become a professional model and make it in the business. As well as become a professional horse back rider and compete in competitions.

I am up and coming model from the Kansas City Missouri who has only been modeling for a little over a year but has been published in over six publications now including Babe-Watch, EMP Performance Car Magazine, FassLyfe, and have had covers on Venture Girlz and Carbon Magazines. My most recent publication was in the October Issue of FLIRTi. My favorite type of modeling is pinup, I would love to do more of that type of modeling. I have been published in Retto Lovely Magazine and Delicious Dolls Magazine October Issue. My goals would be to walk a fashion week, I just wish I was a tad taller than 5 foot 6 and a half (;
