Growing up in a small country town I was very much the girl next door, always getting into some kind of trouble with the neighbourhood boys. When we weren't haying bails or riding horses we were in the forest hunting or fishing. As an adult I am still very outdoorsy and have a passion for animals. My favorite shoot of all time was with a very beautiful quarter horse. I hope to be able to spend my life helping making others easier and spreading love and joy everywhere I go.

Hello Beautiful!! My name is Mariah Lewis! I'm an international published model, I started modeling in 2014 when I graduated high school!! When I was a little girl I always dreamed of being your typical model. I was also told by everyone that "you could be a model", "Tyra Banks would love to have you," "You are so tall, you should model" everywhere I went ... so I gave it a whirl.

Here I'm at 25, I've traveled to 12 different countries, I've spent 15 days in Pune, India. New Mexico, Romania, Mumbai, Germany (just to name a few), shot in the Jungle, made the cover in 2016 of an Atlanta based Magazine!

All because I believed in myself. I wanted to, so I did. Never let anyone discourage you or tell you, You can't!! Chase your dreams, Practice, & remain humble! No matter how high your mountain seems, keep going. You put too much gas in the tank to roll backwards! May the force be with you! God bless

Thalía Pipitone

I am Miss ThaLia. Yes I know that is an uncommon name but I actually love how unique it is. I am like Summer Time a self described Florida Mermaid that loves the beach life. Yes, I'm a mermaid! I actually work as a Mermaid for some promotional events. It's like living a childhood dream! I grew up in South Jersey and spent most of my free time enjoying the beaches and coves. All of my life I dreamed of living on or near the beach. In 2004 I moved to South West Florida where I live today. I instantly fell in love with the atmosphere living on the Gulf which is my Paradise. It has been a dream come true. Since 2012 I have been a Liquor Promotional Model. I began modeling in 2013 for different photo shoots with different photographers. Since 2017 I joined The International Bikini Model Search. Since 2018 I have been Miss Scuderia Cazzani Superboat Spokesmodel for our OPA Racing Team. This year in 2020 I became a Brand Model for a Mermaid Clothing Company called The Filthy Mermaid. Currently I am a Reality TV Personality "Summer" looking forward to being a Cast Member on The International Bikini Model Search Reality Show because I think that there will be a lot of young women that I can inspire. I'm only 4'9 and not a typical model by any means but I'm living my dream and I only see opportunities not limitations! As often as I can I'm always beaching it or boating. I love dancing and listening to EDM, Pop and Hip Hop music. I love going to Bars and Clubs. I enjoy Roller Skating and Bowling. I love watching Movies and TV Shows. I have my mind set on achieving to become a Campaign : Commercial Print : LifeStyle : Swimsuit : Calendar : Catalog Model. I would be honored with Publications for different surf companies and swimwear collections. Even though it's something that isn't always the easiest thing to succeed in. I actually accept the struggle that comes with accomplishing my goals. I am determined to get to where I want to be. Everyone in life faces different forms of challenges throughout their life. You can either run from them or face them head on. I try to face any challenge in my life with the support that my family gives me knowing that they will always be there for me. I would especially like to thank them for always helping to push me to succeed in all aspects of my life.

Tiphaine Tauraa lives in Vairao In French Polynesia. She is currently in her final year at Aorai High School. After completing her baccalaurate, she wanted to move to Paris to try a modeling career.

Born to a Tahitian mother and a Marquesan father, the pretty redhead has mostly inherited white skin from her Czech ancestor, who often served her in local beauty pageants. That's why she tried a popa-only election and she did well! Still, the 19-year-old didn't expect to win. Her advice believe in yourself and persevere.

I started modeling at age 19, but took a long hiatus to pursue a different career as a doctor of neuropsychology, professor and expert consultant. I modeled occasionally, but focused on other things until the COVID crisis began, and many of those activities were no longer possible. Then, I found more time to focus on fitness, and entered a fitness contest which required photography, which led me right back to modeling. I quickly noticed that most models beyond their twenties tended to qualify their modeling by age, and wondered why we consider one's twenties the default for beauty, rather than any other age. It does not make sense to me; having modeled then and now, I certainly feel more beautiful now. So, I began modeling with a strict mantra of "no age stratification." My age tells nothing useful about how

I might live or what I will choose to buy or wear. Designers and retailers who exclusively rely on young models to market their products should realize that Generation X women are not giving those products a second glance, and we're the group who can best afford to buy them. I hope to continue to pursue modeling with the message that the default age for beauty is every age, and to help women of all ages to feel free to dress (or not dress) their bodies however they choose, in any way that feels beautiful to them. As a recreational swimmer and triathlete who lives at the beach, I've always felt most comfortable and beautiful in a bikini, and that's what I am asked to model most frequently. I love it.
