Life isn't about finding yourself but creating yourself. Have a goals in life is very important because it guides your focus and helps you sustains that momentum in life.

Every level of achievement requires its own combination. It is combination of what you do, how you do it and who you do it with. Everyone has the same amount of time, and hard work is simply hard work. And if you struggle in your life that's ok you are not only one. Remember all of your struggles made you stronger.

Just keep going by 5 important steps:

1. Relaxing for spiritual energy.
2. Eat right, exercise and sleep for physical energy
3. Hug, kiss and laugh with loved ones for emotional energy.
4. Set goals, plans and calendar for mental energy.
5. Time block for work for business energy have come out of a shell I never thought I would escape from, and I have started promoting myself for bigger and better outcomes in life. I have an amazing team of people who are constantly pushing me to do better! Without each and every one of them, I would not be who I am today! Goals in life are important, accomplishing and setting bigger goals are equally important as well. I hope to continue growing as a model and enter as many tattoo competitions as possible. Although these are my goals, I hope to continue to grow and continue to be a strong leader in the female community. I believe no matter what life throws your ways, we all deserve to be the best version of

As a mother of 8 children; 3 boys and 5 girls, I never had a chance to do anything other than be a parent and would never change that for the world. I never really had much growing up family wise, so raising my children was a priority for me. As my children began to get older and leave home, 2 boys in the military and stationed a good distance away, some in college but away from home and 3 I'm still raising; I found I had a great deal of free time on my hands to work on myself as well. In October 2020, I decided I wanted a tattoo. (A sleeve), after that sleeve and before leaving the shop; I decided I wanted another sleeve. Eventually my sleeve turned into me wanting a full body tattoo. With the help of my amazing tattoo artist Nate Wallace from Creative Hands tattoo and Piercing, we have spent the last year working on just that. As we began to cover more and more of my body in art, I became more and more comfortable with myself and my body. Since the start of this, I have entered many contests and competitions, I have had many photo shoots, and

The Bumpy road to being a successful entrepreneur. I'm so excited to be the international best-selling author of "The Boss Weight Loss" voted best diet book a Los Angeles. In 2008 I launched my first fitness DVD The Skinny Jeans Workout right before the economy took a nose dive & nobody was buying DVD's anymore. Even with shady distribution deals I was featured in Target.

I began my career as an online executive wellness coach in 2016 it has taken 5 years and a pandemic but my hard work is paying off .I know what they say is true about adversity of creating character because I've got character in spades. I think it's important for my clients to understand It's not about perfection -we all fall down, we all makes mistakes. It's about believing in yourself and learning from your past, always growing, always evolving. If you're never scared, embarrassed or hurt, it means you never take chances. And in the end what we regret at the most are the chances we never took.
